YOU CAN'T HARDLY FIND THIS KIND NO MORE

Officer Charles Brobeck of Corte Madera Police Department examines damage done to automobile of Mrs. Edna McLaughlin of 2 Oak Tree Lane, Fairfax, by ((believe it or not!) a train in Corte Madera. The diesel locomotive, operated by Owen Ogles, 41, of Petaluma, was pulling a tank car on the Northwestern Pacific tracks when Mrs. Ogle drove across the tracks on Tamalpais Avenue at 12:43 p.m. yesterday. The train hit the rear of her car. Mrs. McLaughlin escaped with a scalp cut. Crossing signals were working, said Officer Brobeck—but maybe Mrs. McLaughlin didn't notice, for trains are seldom seen in this part of Marin since the Puerto Suello Tunnel fire of July 20, 1961.

San Rafael Jr. Highs Due Seven-Period Day

Economy Move To Cut Staff

San Rafael's two junior high schools will go on a seven-period day next September, as an economy measure, the San Rafael Board of Education decided today.

The school day will be the same length as the present eight-period day, each period being lengthened. Effect of the change will be to eliminate four additional teachers at Davidson Junior High School, through reducing the number of classes to be taught.

ELIMINATE TAX

The change, approved unanimously by the board shortly before it went into an executive sesson on selection of an assistant superintendent at 12:45 a.m. today, will also eliminate any possibility of a special over-ride tax for junior highs legalized by the last legislature.

The board spent nearly two hours last night discussing the 1964-65 budget of the high school district. Members made no cuts, but found many things to question—and perhaps to cut later.

Items questioned ranged from electric potter's wheels to equipping teachers' work rooms to hair dryers for girls' physical education classes.

BETTINI CRITICAL

Board president C. Paul Bettini was determinedly critical of a proposal to spend $1,800 on equipment for two teachers' work rooms at Terra Linda High School. There is no such work room at San Rafael, he told Principal George Yertson of Terra Linda, "and it seems to me you're going to extremes in this."

Six electric potter's wheels involved an outlay of $1,400 at San Rafael High School. Board member J. Walter Doll questioned that, but Farhad Moezzi, who teaches pottery classes, had the answer.

"Some of the girls' skirts are much too tight to kick the foot-pedal wheels," he explained.

Board member Bella H. Aaron questioned an item of $1,100 for nine hair dryers at Terra Linda High. Yertsen said they were for girls in physical education classes

Governor Wants Engle Off Ballot

Rejects Suggestion Of Being Nominee If Senator Wins

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown threw his personal support today to proposed legislation to remove Sen. Clair Engle's name from the ballot in California's primary.

At the same time, he dismissed a suggestion by Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh that Brown be named the Democratic nominee for the Senate in the event that Engle wins the June 2 election.

WON'T HAPPEN

"That's not going to happen," the governor told a news conference.

"Alan Cranston will be the Democratic nominee."

Brown, who is backing the state controller for Engle's seat, conceded that with Engle's name remaining at the top of the ballot, the ailing incumbent could still capture the party's nomination.

GIVES UP FIGHT

Engle yesterday gave up his fight for re-election because of his health. Brown said he'd like to see his name stricken from the ballot to provide the voters with a "fair choice" among the 11 other Democratic candidates.

The governor said, however, he has no assurance that Engle would consent to withdrawal of his name. He said, too, he knew nothing of purported offers of jobs for the veteran legislator.

Brown estimated that 75 to 80 per cent of the Engle vote will go to Cranston.

The governor had these comments on other subjects:

FILIBUSTER—Assembly Republicans were accused of staging a "silent filibuster" against his 3.67-billion-dollar budget. Brown said the GOP caucus for 45 million dollars in budget cuts "a clear case of the minority trying to impose its will on the majority."

EDUCATION—He still hopes to see a countywide school tax enacted, but conceded it will be difficult to overcome strong Senate opposition.

RED CHINA—Brown spoke only for himself when he advocated trade of peaceful goods with Red China, and hopes it will come to pass.

TRAVEL — He rejected Republican criticism of his out-of-state travels during the legislature's budget stalemate as another Republican effort to find an issue . . . in the same category as calls for special sessions to end sin in the United States."

MANSION — Said that he personally prefers a legislative proposal for a new Executive Mansion in the suburbs, but as governor he believes a most costly mansion including public features should be built near the Capitol.

Larkspur Delays Hospital Proposal

The Larkspur Planing Commission last night delayed any action on a proposal to build a 12-story retirement residence and convalescent hospital until its consultant can study the plans.

After nearly two hours of discussion, the commission decided to ask the city council for funds to pay planning consultant John David Erickson to review the plans and check population density and parking requirements.

Plans for the project, which would be off Via Holon on the south side of the Bon Air Hill, were reviewed for the commission by Dr. John C. Siemens, who heads the Valley Investment Co., architect Benson Esenbach, and Niels Schultz Jr. of the Belardo Co., which owns the property.

The project would cost about five million dollars. Expendable income of the resident, above room and board, would be about $300,000 a year and the payroll and operating expenses would amount to $75,000 a year, they reported.

Schultz said that there would be about 338 persons living in the 282 units. In addition, there would be a 55 bed convalescent hospital. There would be about 20 to 30 employees.

Comments from the audience of about 15 persons centered around objections to the 140-foot height, 115 feet above the 35-foot height limit of the city's zoning ordinance.

Commissioner David Scott said a building of this height "could change the entire character of the county."

Scott said, "The people and the city council would express themselves if they wish to change the zoning ordinance which is only two years old."

The commission plans to meet Erickson on May 12 to learn what his study of the plans would encompass.

IT'S BETTER THAN MAKING MUD PIES

Burning toast seldom comes to the attention of firemen, but one 4-year-old San Anselmo girl did it in a big way yesterday.

San Anselmo firemen said Mrs. David T. Egan, 10 Woodside Court, called for fire units at 1:26 p.m. when smoke started to pour out of her kitchen.

To her embarrassed relief, firemen discovered a loaf of bread, cookies and potato chips done to a crisp inside the oven, but no other damage.

Mrs. Egan had left the food in the oven, which was then cold. Her young daughter, whose name firemen did not learn, turned the knobs later when her mother was not looking.

Fluoridation June Election Is Pondered

Directors of the North Marin County Water District last night discussed but took no action on a vote on water fluoridation proposed June 2.

The board could not act because it was meeting in special session and had to stick to its agenda. The matter was put off until the regular meeting of the board Tuesday.

County supervisors yesterday denied by a 3-to-2 vote the water district's request for consolidation of precinct and polling places with the general election. The denial means that it will cost the district more money to hold the election.

Frederick Bold Jr., water district attorney, said yesterday he expects district officials to hold the election despite the lack of county cooperation.

Marin Rapid Transit Bill Goes To Brown

The State Senate yesterday approved a bill that would permit Marin voters to create a rapid transit district for the county. The bill now goes to Gov. Edmund G. Brown for his signature.

The bill, by Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) authorizes Marin voters to decide whether to create a district.

Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael), co-author of the bill, said the district might be able to contract with the Bay Area Rapid Transit District for service across the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge. He has introduced a resolution asking for a study of such a system.

The rapid transit district bill, first introduced by Bagley on March 3, was later amended to give cities a voice in rapid transit installations over city streets.

This was one of the objections raised by the Marin Council of Mayors and Councilmen.

Unruh Bill Loses Firm Clauses On Unification

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Senate Education Committee today stripped Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh's school unification bill of its mandatory features, then approved the measure on a voice vote.

Unruh (D-Los Angeles) said he would continue to carry the measure, and would abide by the committee's decision, "if not your wisdom." The action sends the bill to the Finance Committee.

Amendments offered by Sens. Walter W. Stiern (D-Bakersfield), and Joseph A. Rattigan (D-Santa Rosa) eliminated the provision that schools must be unified by 1967. They were adopted by a split voice vote.

Stiern said he disagreed with Unruh that "there has to be a fixed terminus date for unification," or "some areas will never be unified . . ."

"The school districts will move toward unification," Stiern said. "The mandatory provision is not necessary, the end Mr. Unruh seeks will be achieved."

Supervisors To Try Again On Districts

The Marin County Board of Supervisors agreed yesterday to meet on any free days it may have in June and July to try again to draw a new set of boundaries for supervisorial districts.

Board budget hearings will start June 17, and Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker said he would be out of the state between the June 2 election and the start of budget hearings.

Starting July 1, the board will meet as a board of equalization to discuss property assessment changes.

Leydecker proposed that a committee be appointed to study the problem and report back about the end of September.

Fusselman said there would be a "different atmosphere" after the June 2 primary, even if some supervisors were forced to a run-off election in November.

$5,000 Teacher Pay Bill Passed

SACRAMENTO (AP)— California teachers would get a minimum salary of $5,000 a year under a bill passed 50-8 by the Assembly today.

The measure, by Assemblyman Edward M. Gaffney (D-San Francisco), would boost the minimum from $4,500. It would not apply to teachers holding emergency or provisional credentials.

Gaffney, noting that most districts pay the $5,000 minimum already, said only between 1,800 and 2,000 of the state's 100,000 teachers would be affected.

Church Leader Opposes Ban On School Prayer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A church leader today opposed any tampering with the First Amendment to permit prayers in the public schools.

Edwin H. Tuller, general secretary of the American Baptist Convention, calling daily school prayers "more rote than worship," urged the House judiciary committee to reject dozens of proposed constitutional amendments before it.

BOOK MONEY

Saloon Pays Librarian's Easter Work

The Mill Valley librarian who worked for nothing in the Sausalito public library during Easter week end has now been paid.

Mrs. Manche Harvey was not paid for her part-time work because she refused to sign the loyalty oath required of alls public employees in the state.

But today she received in the mail a check for $13.58, the amount due her, with his note:

"Mrs. Harvey. Thank you for not signing the loyalty oath. It is the pleasure of the No Name saloon to reimburse you for the wages you lost for not signing. Gratefully, Neil Davis, publican."

"I am going to buy two books with the money to give to the Sausalito Library," said Mrs. Harvey.

She said one will be "The Quest of the Dream," by John Roche, a history of civil liberties in the United States. The other will be a book on the meaning of the Bill of Rights.

Army Copter Crash Kills 6

FT. CAMPBELL, Ky. (AP) — Six persons were killed today when an Army helicopter crashed while on a training flight at Fort Campbell.

The Public Information Office said the craft carried two crewmen and four passengers but declined to identify them until the next of kin had been notified.

A board of officers was convened to investigate the accident.

Sellers To Remain

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Doctors delayed British actor Peter Sellers' departure from the hospital today. A hospital spokesman said Sellers would have to remain a few days longer.

CHICAGO (AP)—One of the four jurors, tentatively accepted to try James R. Hoffa on charges of fraud and conspiracy, was dismissed today. As the trial went into its third day in U. S. District Court only three jurors now have been tentatively seated.

Exports To Reds Might Be Eased

LONDON (UPI) — The North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies may ease their embargo soon on the export of strategic goods behind the Iron Curtain, informed sources said today.

The list of goods which are barred to Communist countries for security reasons is under review.

The sources indicated the embargo principle will be retained and that no major changes are anticipated. But some modifications which would have the effect of easing current restrictions are being considered.

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE (UPI) — Maj. Bob Rushworth today took the X-15 rocket ship to an altitude of 102,000 feet and hit a speed of 3,903 miles an hour in a test to determine the effect of shock waves on photography.

Sweden Spy Claims He Is Russian General

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — A parliamentary report said today confessed spy Col. Stig Wennerstroem claims to be a major general in the Soviet armed forces.

The 57-year-old Swedish Air Force colonel is now standing trial in secret for selling vital Swedish and North Atlantic Treaty Organization secrets to the Russians.

The report said he told the police he used the code name "the Eagle" while working for the Soviets.

Ruby family emotions spilled over as Judge Joe B. Brown opened a hearing on a defense motion for a new trial for the slayer of accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

His sister, Mrs. Eva L. Grant of Dallas, moaned in the courtroom, "He's so sick. Why can't they do something?"

Lodge, Scranton Win In Primaries

Envoy Wins Vast Home State Vote

BOSTON (AP) — Massachusetts Republicans left no doubt about it in yesterday's presidential primaries—Henry Cabot Lodge is the man they want for the Republican nomination for president.

They gave Lodge a thumping write-in vote in the preference column and the 10 delegates-at-large who favor his nomination.

Returns for district delegates were slow to be counted, but Lodge may win most of the 24. One Goldwater delegate is Roger A. Moore of Boston, elected without opposition in the 9th Congressional District.

DEMO VOTE, TOO

Moore ran uncommitted, but he has been an advocate of Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater's nomination for the presidency.

One o the elected delegates-at-large is Lodge's son, George.

Lodge — who isn't actively running, and who has declined even to talk about it—also won a surprising write-in preference vote on the Democratic ballots. His Democratic write-ins came to about 10 per cent of those the Democrats gave to President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Lodge, a descendant of old Massachusetts families, was elected three times to the U.S. Senate, headed the U.S. delegation to the United Nations during the Eisenhower administration, and now is ambassador to South Vietnam—an appointment given him by the late President John F. Kennedy. Kennedy went to the Senate in 1952 by defeating Lodge.

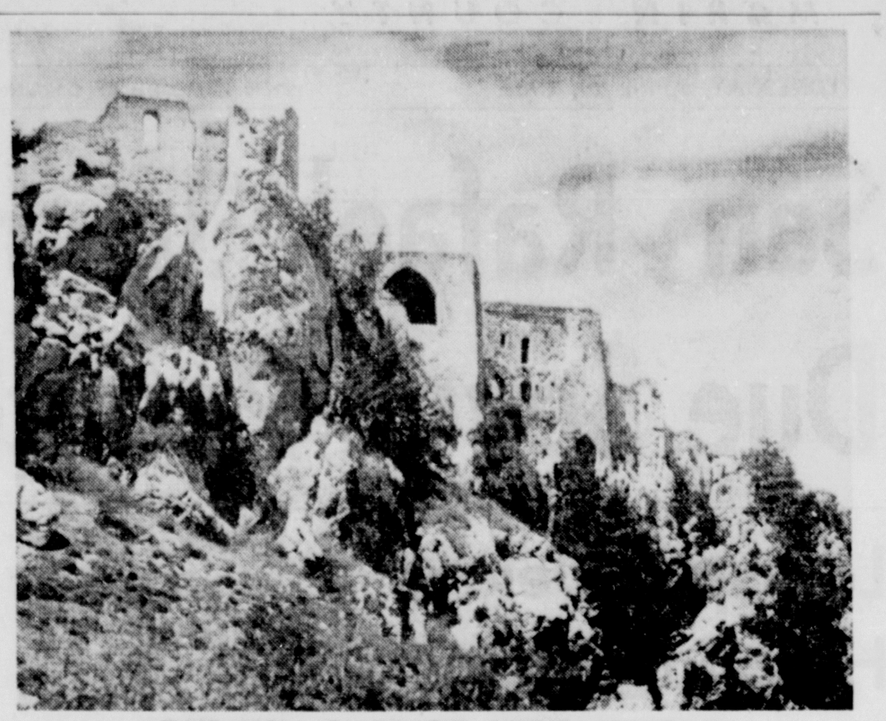
HOME STATE

Lodge's home-state victory without an organized effort duplicated that which a small group of his supporters promoted in last month's New Hampshire primary, where he topped the popularity poll and won the state's 14 convention delegates.

On the Democratic side, President Johnson's write-in was about 3-1 over that given to Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The Republican preferential tabulation of 1,034 of 1,764 precincts, gave: Goldwater 3,933; Lodge 28,213; Richard M. Nixon 2,310; Gov. Nelson Rockefeller 937; Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine 210.

The Democratic preferential poll gave: Johnson 21,876; Atty. Gen. Kennedy 6,320; Lodge 1,538.



TURKISH CYPRIOT STRONGHOLD

This is a view of the 11th Century St. Hilarian Castle in northern Cyprus which today is a military fortress, a focal point in the struggle between Turkish and Greek Cypriots. When fighting broke out last December, Turkish Cypriots in nearby villages rushed in and took over from the Greek Cypriot caretaker. From the castle riflemen can look down on the Kyrenia coastal plain and the Mediterranean 2,500 feet below.

Pennsylvania For Scranton; Lodge Second

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania scored a smashing success over other Republicans yesterday in presidential preference write-in votes.

But it seemed open to interpretation whether his total—approaching a record for write-ins in this state—would be regarded by the first-term governor as popular clamor from his home state to become a presidential candidate.

Scranton, 46, has said he does not want the nomination but would accept a "sincere and honest" draft by the national convention. He also has said he did not think such a draft is likely.

GOLDWATER FOURTH

With 6,757 of 9,261 precincts counted, Scranton had 148,234, or almost 60 per cent of the write-ins; Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge 39,482; Sen. Barry Goldwater 19,255; former Vice President Richard M. Nixon 19,544; Gov. George Romney of Michigan 157; Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York 3,579; Sen. Margaret Chase Smith 438, and Harold Stassen 142.

Rain fell throughout the primary day in most of the state.

No names were on the presidential ballot and none of the candidates campaigned, yielding to Scranton's wishes that there be no contest for control of the state's 64-man delegation to the convention.

'NOT A CANDIDATE'

Scranton asked for a unpledged delegation, with himself as "favorite son" leader—not candidate. The state GOP organization agreed to this, but some Goldwater supporters ran against organization-backed candidates for delegates and in at least one instance were successful.

In Delaware County, where civil rights demonstrators over the past month have resulted in hundreds of arrests and dozens of injuries, Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama, a Democrat, received 822 write-in votes on the Republican presidential ballot, although Scranton easily carried the county with more than 12,000.

Statewide on the Democratic ballot, Wallace had 1,759 to 64,575 for President Johnson with 5,472 precincts counted. Robert Kennedy, the attorney general, had 4,928.

Johnson Tells Businessmen Second Tax Cut Is Probable

WASHINGTON (AP) — Less than two months after an 11.5-billion-dollar income tax reduction went on the books, President Lyndon B. Johnson has held out the prospect of trimming taxes still further—but not for a few years.

"It is still too early to make firm promises on further tax cuts," Johnson said in remarks prepared for a dinner attended by many of the nation's business leaders last night.

"But if this one is a success—as I have every reason to believe it will be—in building production, creating jobs, raising profits, and generating revenues to balance the budget, then I see another tax cut a few years down the road," the president continued.

But he cautioned: "We can move to this second round of tax reduction only if we behave ourselves this year."

On the heels of his warm reception Monday from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce convention, Johnson invited more than 50 corporation presidents and board chairmen and their wives to the private White House dinner.

"For as long as I am president," he told them, "the leaders of industry and finance are going to be welcome in this house."

He said that "to sit down and exchange views with you from time to time is vital to the health of our free enterprise economy."

The president has announced plans for a similar dinner early next month with top labor union officials.

President Urged To Visit Hawaii

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson, who has a fondness for grasping voters' hands, is being urged to make a western inspection tour in May or June that could take him as far as Hawaii.

For a president who wishes to preserve as long as possible the pleasant fiction that he isn't campaigning, tours of this kind offer a chance to get out and meet the people where they live. Johnson has said he wants to hold down political activity until after the party nominating conventions.

GRASS ROOTS

These trips are always billed as nonpolitical expenditions on which the country's head man is seeing for himself how matters are progressing at the grass roots.

This usually results in futile outcries from the opposition that the chief executive is politicking at the taxpayers' expense. But such complaints are mostly for the record and even their authors expect little public reaction to them.

INVITATIONS

Johnson's desk is loaded with all kinds of invitations for him to dedicate dams, inspect new atomic complexes, cut ribbons on highways and view conservation projects.

The president has a bipartisan invitation to visit Hawaii, which is about as far as he can go from the mainland under his self-imposed rule not to leave the country so long as there is no vice president.

Senators Daniel K. Inouye (D-Hawaii) and Hiram L. Fong (R-Hawaii) called on the president recently and asked him to dedicate some new battle monuments being erected in the National Cemetery of the Pacific.

UTAH DAM

If he goes there, Sen. Frank E. Moss (D-Utah) said he hopes the president will stop long enough to dedicate the Flaming Gorge Dam in Utah, where President John F. Kennedy turned the valve that started the flow of water.

Johnson, who sometimes gives the appearance of being restive at White House confinement, is reported sympathetic to the idea of making a western tour. He has always been politically popular in the Plains and Rocky Mountain area.

U.S. Called 'Only A Kibbitzer' In Vietnam

By ADVANCE NEWS SERVICE

WASHINGTON—Knowledgeable government sources are insisting now that any decision to extend the war in South Vietnam to the Communist north will be made by Gen. Nguyen Khanh's regime, not the U.S. command advising him.

This contention was recently made to American editors at a government briefing on Southeast Asia. The officials who made it were pressed on it and they stuck to their guns.

That the U.S. would permit itself to be dragged into a situation fraught with international repercussions by the unilateral action of General Khanh is unthinkable. Yet these government sources refuse to concede that Uncle Sam plays more than a kibitzer's role in Vietnam.

This latest insistence that the U.S. role in South Vietnam is purely "advisory" shows how intelligent men can fall into a semantic trap when they cling to a position that calls for a generous stretch of the imagination in the first place.

It may not be true, as Senate minority leader Everett Dirksen has charged, that the Johnson administration is maintaining a "fiction" in saying the U.S. role is only advisory.

Certainly, if the U.S. command under Gen. Paul D. Harkins had a completely free hand in Vietnam, the war would be conducted in a different manner.

Boy Found With Accused Kidnaper

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—An accused kidnaper who said he liked to see "little boys tied up and screaming" sat dazed in a jail cell today and in Tennessee a mother clutched her son and wept with joy.

But the arrest of Francis Joseph Bryan Jr. yesterday brought little happiness to the town of Mount Pleasant, S.C., where the massive manhunt began.

Two off-duty FBI agents came upon Bryan in a shopping center here yesterday, wrestled him to the pavement and rescued his victim, 8-year-old Dennis Burke. Dennis was kidnaped from Humboldt, Tenn., Friday.

But the warrant the FBI had for Bryan, one of their 10 most wanted men, charges him with the kidnaping of 10-year-old John David Robison of Mount Pleasant. John David disappeared Feb. 27, and on March 31, his skeleton was found in a mangrove swamp in Hallandale, Fla.

Federal officials in South Carolina want to try Bryan for the kidnaping.

Kasten was driving his own automobile in Drayton Plains, a suburb of Pontiac, behind a truck. The piece of spring, about two by four inches, shattered the windshield and pierced the brain of the clergyman. His car traveled another 800 feet and crashed into a utility pole.

Russians Working To Release Waters

MOSCOW (AP)—A 40,000-man force worked today to release the landslide-trapped waters of the Zeravshan River, but the urgency of their task appeared diminished.

The huge labor force worked around the clock to cut a drain-off canal through the landslide which filled a narrow canyon between the Zeravshan and Turkestan mountain ranges last Friday and dammed the river.

State Building Measure Gains

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Senate yesterday passed a bill putting a 380-million-dollar bond issue for college and state building construction on the ballot.

The bill, by Sen. Walter Stiern (D-Bakersfield) went to the Assembly.

It earmarks 50 million dollars of the bond money for junior colleges. In addition to college construction, a small portion of the money also would be used for state hospital and prison construction and other state buildings.

Planners Recommend Keeping Consultant

Mill Valley planning commissioners last night unanimously recommended to the city council that planning consultant John D. Erickson be given an extension of time to work on the East Mill Valley master plan, and asked for $3,000 to allow Erickson to add the proposed annexation of 255 acres in marshland to the plan.

Erickson requested the extension and said it would be wise to include the marshland area within the plan whether or not it is annexed.

He reported Robert Royston, Mill Valley landscape architect with Royston, Hanamoto, Mayes and Beck, has a group of University of California graduate students working on the marshland area as a landscape project.

Commission chairman Robert C. Mountjoy said the students are reported to have come up with interesting ideas in their study pertaining to Mill Valley's entrances. The study is to be completed in about three weeks.

The commission set May 26 for a hearing on rezoning 10 city parks from unclassified to open area.

Six names were recommended to city council to fill two vacancies on the commission left by the resignations of Maxine White and A. A. Hemmerling. Recommended to take Mrs. White's position were Mrs. Donna Iglehart, Mrs. Rae Kappelmann, Mrs. Claudia O'Connor and Mrs. Rex Allen, and to take Hemmerling's position, Normand Black and Robert Dagley.

Hub Schools Pay Schedule Up To $9,564

The 1965-65 salary schedule for teachers in the San Anselmo School District ranges from $5,208 to $9,564, Dist. Supt. Stephen L. Parodi reported today.

But a top qualified teacher could earn up to $9,852, he said. Teachers with a master's degree, 30 units of credit beyond that and a minimum of 12 years experience are paid an additional 3 per cent above the schedule.

The new schedule, representing an average pay raise of 5.2 per cent was adopted by the district board Tuesday night.

An Independent - Journal headline yesterday erroneously listed the new salary schedules as ranging from $5,004 to $9,852.

Deputy Shine Nabs 2 In Vandalism

An 18-year-old Kentfield youth, Craig Leon Lieber, was booked in Marin County jail today for malicious mischief in an alleged spree of knocking down rural mailboxes with an automobile over the past several days.

A companion, 17, also of Kentfield, was questioned by Marin County deputies and released to his parents. Identity of the pair was learned after Deputy D. K. Shine watched a car push over two mailboxes on in the vicinity of Crown Road and Evergreen Drive in Kentfield last Friday night.

Officers said over a dozen boxes have been damaged. Lieber resides at 40 Evergreen Drive.

Judgment Delayed In Battery Case

Plea of guilty to an amended complaint charging battery was entered in Marin Municipal Court today by Dave Johnson, 35, of Marin City. Judgment was delayed pending a probation office report.

Johnson originally was charged with assault with a deadly weapon after Marin County sheriff's deputies said he attacked William C. Davis, cement contractor of 1288 Cambridge Street, Novato, with a hammer April 20.

Marinite Arraigned In Loan Case

A Marin County resident and a former manager of a savings and loan association in Napa were arraigned in Napa County Superior Court today on conspiracy charges involving loan transactions.

Kelly and Skinner are two of four men indicted on the conspiracy charges by the Napa County Grand Jury.

Dan R. Nunan of 5 Nunan Lane, San Rafael, manager of Pacific Coast Mortgage Co., and William R. Atkinson of 12 Sienna Way, San Rafael, were arraigned last Wednesday, and also set to enter pleas next Wednesday.

According to the indictment the four were involved in a conspiracy whereby Skinner received kickbacks after making loans in excess of the limitations of the state finance code.

Dog-Lovers In England Join Protest

LONDON (UPI)—The British press and dog-lovers today joined in full hue-and-cry over President Lyndon B. Johnson's playful act of pulling his pet beagle up by its ears to pose for pictures. One newspaper said it would hurt Johnson politically.

But Bernard Workman, chairman of the Canine Defense League, spoke up for the president.

"I don't believe that a beagle comes to any harm by picking it up by the ears," said Workman. "Their ears are particularly strong. Most people know how to handle their own dogs best."

However, in a country where even members of the royal family have been criticized for hunting birds and beasts, and the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is a potent pressure group, the story was front-page news.

Virtually every London newspaper, with the exception of the Communist Daily Worker, printed stories, pictures and editorials on the incident.

Telephone Rate Extension Urged

Directors of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce yesterday passed a resolution supporting Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.'s efforts to extend the uniform calling rate area north to the Ignacio area.

Calls to the area, which includes Hamilton Air Force Base, now are billed as long distance calls.

Chamber directors also heard a talk by Mayor John F. McInnis, candidate for the county board of supervisors from the first district.

Along with his reasons for seeking the county office, McInnis reviewed the city's plans for making Second and Third streets one-way, and told directors that progress already has been made on the Third Street extension project, planned to fit in with state highway projects.

Mussels To Be Quarantined

Mussels will be quarantined for human consumption from Friday to Oct. 31 as protection from the toxic poison present in the shellfish during the summer and early autumn, the State Department of Public Health announced today.

Mussels may be used for bait during the quarantine period, but must be broken open and placed in containers marked: "Mussels, May Contain Poison, Unfit for Human Food."

Dr. Malcolm H. Merrill, state health director, also warned residents that clams should be cleaned and washed thoroughly before cooking and all dark parts should be discarded.

Water District Lets $78,984 Building Job

Page Construction Co. of Novato was awarded a $78,984 contract last night by the North Marin County Water District board to construct buildings at the district's corporation yard.

The contract calls for a shop and warehouse buildings, including an electrical full travel crane system, lockers and cabinets, and heavy duty wiring in the shop. Work is to begin in five days. The buildings are to be completed in 60 days.

The board voted to grant a 3 per cent salary increase in 16 of the 29 ranges of its 35 employees. Other increases were slightly higher, averaging about 4 per cent, with the highest raise 13 per cent. The salary of the district manager, Jerome B. Gilbert, was increased from $1,170 to $1,270 per month.

Meters To Work On Parade Day

Parking meters in San Rafael will not take a holiday during May in Marin parade down Fourth Street Saturday, despite some radio announcements to the contrary.

The only places parking meters will not be working is along Fourth Street from H Street to Mary Street, the route of the parade. San Rafael City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen explained that no parking will be allowed along the route.

Cars can park there afternoon when the parade ends, but it will not be free. The meters will work. No MAY about it.

Audubon Society Sets Meeting For Election

The annual meeting and election of directors of the Marin Audubon Society will be at 8 p.m. Friday in Room 40 of the Chemistry Building at College of Marin, Kentfield.

Donald H. Fry Jr., president of the Sacramento Audubon Society, will give an illustrated talk on an East African game park. He was in Africa on a United Nations project.

Clausen Coming To Marin Friday

Rep. Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) and a national park official will be in Marin Friday for a noon luncheon in San Rafael and a tour of Point Reyes National Seashore.

George Hartzog, director of the National Park Service, will speak at a Friday noon luncheon at Dominic's Restaurant in San Rafael, sponsored by the Marin Visitors Bureau.

Clausen will attend the luncheon, then accompany Hartzog on a tour of the Point Reyes National Seashore to discuss the access road to the national park and set up a timetable for development of recreational facilities.

Clausen's field representative, Raymond E. Paschke, said the congressman will ride in the May in Marin parade along San Rafael's Fourth Street on Saturday.

18 Get Absentee Recall Ballots

Eighteen applications for absentee ballots for the Lagunittas School District recall election were received by the county schools office by the deadline yesterday.

The ballots must be returned to the office of the superintendent of schools at the Civic Center by Saturday to be counted. The election will be held Tuesday

At stake is the trustee post of Mrs. Georgette Vilas, under fire for her vote to accept the resignation of district Supt. Clifford L. Frye.

John Musser of the county elections office said that the 18 absentee ballot requests was unusually high for such an election. He said there are 1,093 registered voters in the district.

OBITUARIES

Gussie F. Eklund Dies At 83

Gussie Freund Eklund of 150 Bungalow Avenue, San Rafael, widow of pioneer electrician Harry Richard Eklund, died at her home yesterday after an illness of many years. She was 83 years old.

Her husband came to Marin in 1901 as the county's first electrician. He died Feb. 5 of this year. The couple, acquainted since school days in San Francisco, married in 1902.

Mrs. Eklund, a native of San Francisco, had been ill for about 25 years.

She leaves four sons, Robert E. Sr., Arthur R., Floyd and Luther Eklund, all of San Rafael; three daughters, Mrs. Charlotte Reily and Mrs. Paula Perry of San Rafael, and Mrs. Betty Toll of Santa Venetia; 12 grandchildren, and 16 great-grandchildren.

Funeral will be at 10 a.m. tomorrow at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

BUDGET

when they take swimming. He said the school has nine already, San Rafael High School has six.

Mrs. Aaron and Bettini thought the purchase could well be eliminated. Nobody raised the question of how the girls undress, shower, dress, and then dry their hair in the 10 minutes between the end of the physical education class and beginning of their next class.

Doll questioned an $8,000 outlay for athletic equipment at San Rafael High School. He was told by Thomson that the student body has been buying much of the equipment, but "we do not think the student body should be required to do this." The students, he said, would prefer to turn over gate receipts to the district and let the district buy all the equipment.

Mrs. Aaron and board member John M. Bagshaw questioned the $10,000 cost of the director of publications office. Bagshaw said, "I would rather see the money used to hire two more teachers." Doll, however, said he thought the office should be expanded rather than eliminated.

A key question was raised by board member Carl J. Brown: If a request for a salary scale increase submitted by the San Rafael Teachers Assn. were granted, what would it do to the high school budget?

It would wipe out the $100,000 in reserve, replied Supt. Bert C. Corona. And it would be even more devastating to the elementary school budget.

The high school operating budget at this point calls for spending $3,383,900; the elementary budget, $2,562,320.

ROBERT MORGAN

Memorial services for Robert Theodore (Ted) Morgan, 31, of El Verano, Sonoma County, will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Bates, Evans and Fehrensen Mortuary, Sonoma.

Morgan died Monday of a long illness. He was employed by the Albert Wright Co. of Schellville as a machinist.

RUPERT DADE

Rupert R. Dade, 50, of 105 Bothin Road, Fairfax, died at a local hospital last night after suffering a heart attack at work in San Francisco.

He had been an installer, welder, electrician and sheet metal worker for approximately 30 years, and was employed by the O'Keefe Electric Co., San Francisco.

Surviving are his wife, Sally E. Dade, his mother, Mrs. Flora Dade of Kentfield, two daughters, Mrs. Sally J. Pulcheon of Beaufort, S.C., and Flora Diane Dade of Fairfax, a sister, Mrs. Laura Dade Erickson of Burlingame, and one granddaughter.

Nearest relatives surviving are four cousins, Mrs. Kaye Stray and Julia Coultrup of Larkspur and Katie Coultrup and Estella Hueni of Texas.

Funeral will be held at 11 a.m., tomorrow, at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery. Contributions to Peace Lutheran Church are preferred by the relatives.

Candidates Debate Supervisor Issues In Fourth District

Storer, Planning Aide Exchange Sharp Words Over Master Plan

By RICHARD LYTTLE

The four candidates for supervisor in the Fourth (West Marin) District met in Point Reyes Station last night for a public debate, but the sharpest exchange of the evening came between one candidate and a member of the county planning commission who was in the audience.

About 45 attended the session sponsored by the Marin County Farm Bureau. Frank Truttman of Point Reyes Station, who conducted the meeting, allowed each candidate 10 minutes for an opening statement. After that he allowed questions.

Thomas T. Storer of Inverness Park, a deputy district attorney, was the first to speak. He said supervisorial redistricting was one of the biggest issues in the campaign and he discussed this at length.

However, candidate James Dougan of Bolinas, an insurance man, said he believed redistricting was an academic question because it would all be accomplished by the incumbent board before the new board takes office next January. Incumbent George H. Ludy of Inverness agreed with Dougan.

Storer suggested that rather than change the boundaries of the Fourth District any more, supervisors should each continue to stand from one of the five districts but be elected at large. Ludy said this would require a county charter.

John T. Keilty of Woodacre, a contractor, said in his opening statement that he favored addition of Fairfax to the Fourth District and a shift of some northern ranch land now in the Fourth District into the Fifth District.

Keilty also said he favors better planning and more study on improvement and new construction of county roads. He urged enlargement of the planning staff, consolidation of many small government agencies within Marin, study of some form of rapid transit, and better zoning.

Dougan said he would like to see higher salaries to keep key county men. He said many times the county is serving only as a training camp, with good men leaving for higher paying jobs once they get enough experience.

Dougan said he is interested in keeping taxes down and making Marin a place where the working man can live without undue tax expense. In the recent reappraisals in West Marin, he said, some property values went up as much as 11 times. When appraisals can take such a big jump "it seems to me that there s something wrong," Dougan said.

He said some of the increases will force property owners on limited income to sell their land.

Ludy, speaking on the appraisals, said the supervisors have no control over the county assessor, but the supervisors do hold hearings as an equalization board in July. They can make adjustment then.

He said individual property owners may take their complaints to the appraiser, but "he'll give you little satisfaction, I can assure you."

During the question period, H. C. Hankins of Drake Highlands, asked the candidates how they thought planning could be improved.

This question led to discussion of the West Marin Master Plan, Planning Director B. D. Dobbs, and finally to a verbal duel between Storer and Hankins.

Ludy said the West Marin Master Plan was scheduled to be released tomorrow. Hearings on it will be held by both the planning commission and the supervisors.

Hankins said there was an effort by some members of the board of supervisors to fire Dobbs. He declared there was "no reason for this," and the decision was made not to fire him. "Work is going forward," Hankins declared.

Storer then asked Hankins if either he or Ludy had received complaints on the Owen Potter property near the Inverness Wye. A variance was issued for a beauty parlor in the home, but there are many other activities, including firewood cutting and sale. Storer said he fully expects to see a sawmill there soon.

Ludy and Hankins said they had not had complaints. Hankins later explained that he only counts complaints in writing since it is too difficult to keep track of all conversations.

Later in the evening, Storer asked Hankins about a variance allowed for a real estate office in an area the master plan would designate residential.

Hankins suggested that Storer was hitting "a little below the belt," but said as far as he could remember, the adjustment seemed like a reasonable one.

David R. Baty, judge of the West Marin Judicial District, said he was at the planning commission meeting when the action was taken and no one objected at that time.

Storer, harping back to the Potter property, asked again if there had been complaints. Hankins said complaints come through the planning staff and are then referred by the commission to the district attorney's office for action. Hankins said Storer should know this, being a member of the district attorney's staff.

"I think you're becoming a bit rude," Storer said. "You really are."

"No more than you, Tom," Hankins retorted.

The election is June 2.

Battery Trial Set In Scuffle With Policeman

Harry M. Hicklin, 22-year-old San Rafael man charged with battery after a scuffle Saturday with a San Rafael policeman, pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court yesterday and jury trial was set for 9:30 a.m. May 18.

Theodore Louis Amato, 20, of 115 West Street, San Rafael, whose arrest led to the fracas, earlier was fined $56 on his plea of guilty to disturbing the peace. Imposition of sentence was postponed.

San Rafael Police Officer John Rosentangle, wearing plain clothes and off duty, attempted to arrest Amato at Fourth and Cijos streets after hearing the latter shout obscenities, according to the report. He said he was then jumped by Hicklin.

Hicklin is husband of Claudia Hicklin, 20, who had a six-pound baby Monday in the driveway of a Kentfield home at 11 Ash Avenue before she could reach a hospital.

Board Approves Student Drive For Kennedy Library

Student fund-raising for the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library in Massachusetts was given the blessing of the San Rafael Board of Education last night.

Serena Olsen of Terra Linda High School, who heads the fund raising campaign for Marin County, asked the board by letter to set aside a five-minute period on May 29 during which student donations could be collected in each class. Donations from high schools throughout the county would be sent to Terra Linda High, where they would be totaled and forwarded to Boston, her letters said. Students would be asked to contribute not more than 25 cents each. The appeal for contributions would be by students, not faculty members.

Supt. Bert C. Corona said the plan had the approval of Principal George Yertsen of Terra Linda High. Principal Alfred N. Thomson of San Rafael High said he saw no objection to it.

"This is a special interest that deserves special consideration," remarked board member J. Walter Doll.

Approval, on motion of board member Carl J. Brown, was unanimous.

Hub Mayor Calls City Hall 'Camp Confusion'

The congested San Anselmo city offices were labeled "Camp Confusion" last night by Mayor William F. Franchini during a discussion on relocating the public works department in a small office behind the city hall.

The discussion was continued from last week's meeting. Feasibility of having city forces construct the new office was being considered.

"If we have the street department's men do the job, they'll get further behind in their work," Franchini said. "I think we ought to get some bids on the project. "We aren't going to save any money this way."

Councilman Arthur W. Smith said he had been opposed to creation of the public works department and was still opposed to it. He said it is, as he had expected, "snowballing" into a bigger and bigger office.

Smith warned that although City Administrator Douglas Flautt did not anticipate needing additional personnel if the new office were constructed, the request for a new employee would be made sooner or later.

The council authorized Flautt to get several bids on the proposal, which he estimated last week would cost $2,000 not including labor.

San Anselmo Surprised—Job Is Under Estimate—Awarded

The San Anselmo City Council was pleasantly surprised last night when the lowest bid on widening Sir Francis Drake Boulevard from the Hub to Tunstead Avenue was $3,000 less than the city engineer's estimate.

Contract for the project was awarded to Ghilotti Brothers of San Rafael, whose bid, calculated by Richard Sypher, director of public works, was $117,997.

Other bidders were O. C. Jones and Sons of Berkeley, $129,946, and E. A. Forde Co. of San Anselmo, $146,734.80.

The project is expected to be completed by December and will include landscaped concrete traffic islands and left turn lanes at intersections.

The San Anselmo City Council Also:

1. Introduced an ordinance increasing taxicab rates as requested by the Yellow Cab Co. and Redwood Cab Co., making them nearly identical with the rates in San Rafael and Fairfax.
2. Directed the city administrator and city attorney to study a proposal presented by architect Norman T. Gilroy to allow a new method of guaranteeing completion and maintenance of public improvements in subdivisions.
3. Reviewed the 1964-65 fire department budget, which will be discussed by the council with the Sleepy Hollow Fire District next month.
4. Awarded a contract for spraying elm trees to Sohner Tree Service Inc. of San Anselmo at $663.
5. Authorized the city engineer to proceed with preparation of a report on street deficiencies which will qualify the city for receiving state gasoline tax funds.
6. Approved a request by Broderick Investment Co. to allow a 22-foot roadway adjacent to the site of a 19-unit apartment building at Park Way and Ancho Vista.
7. Informally supported reappointment of Dr. Charles W. Aby, San Rafael vice mayor, to the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District board.
8. Reappointed James Murphy to the planning commission.
9. Proclaimed May 11-15 as San Anselmo Days in the "May in Marin" celebration.
10. Agreed to retire Rocco Joseph Duranto from employment as a maintenance man for the city on the reports of two doctors regarding his failing eyesight. The council directed the city administrator to create a job for Duranto for which he would be better physically able to handle, at a lower salary.

Martinelli Heads Leydecker Group

Roderick P. Martinelli, San Rafael attorney, was named chairman of the Byron Leydecker for Supervisor Committee today.

Supervisor Leydecker, who is seeking re-election on June 2, is being challenged by San Rafael Mayor John F. MacInnis and by San Rafael plumbing contractor Orlando Conti.

"The election of Supervisor Leydecker is a must if we are to continue the excellence in government that has characterized our district's supervisors," said Martinelli.

Martinelli is a past president of the San Rafael Board of Education.

Marin Due $2,172 Aviation Gas Refund

Marin County soon will receive $2,072.54 as its share of nearly $345,000 is aviation gasoline tax refunds being sent this month to cities, counties and districts which own or run airports, according to state aeronautics director Clyde P. Barnett.

The county is eligible for the money because of its operation of the Marin County Airport at Novato.

Churchmen Join Crusade For Rights

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders of the Protestant, Roman Catholic and Jewish faiths — pledged to a moral crusade for racial equality — carry their message today to President Lyndon B. Johnson and to Capitol Hill.

They proclaimed it last night before more than 6,000 people at Georgetown University, declaring that enactment of a strong civil rights bill is the business of America's churches.

"We are embarked on a crusade that will not be ended until every American is given equal rights, equal opportunities and full recognition of his human dignity," said the Most Rev. Patrick A. O'Boyle, Roman Catholic archbishop of Washington.

Five church leaders dedicated themselves to the crusade at the National Interreligious Convocation on Civil Rights.

Today, 150 churchmen of all faiths carry it to the White House for an appointment with President Johnson. The president sent to the convocation a message of praise for "those who are working for a country in which there shall be no discrimination."

On Capitol Hill, Protestant leaders scheduled the first in a series of worship services underscoring their concern about civil rights.

The services will be held daily at the Lutheran Church of the Reformation while the Senate is considering Johnson's broad civil rights bill.

"We feel that this is an issue where moral and spiritual factors should dominate the political process," Rabbi Uri Miller of Baltimore, president of the Synagogue Council of America, told the convocation.

Inmate Escapes At Prison Camp

A San Quentin prisoner, serving time for petty theft with a prior offense, escaped from the prison's conservation work camp near Weott, Humboldt County, today.

The prisoner, William Ernest Frye, 26, was missing at the 1 a.m. check, according to J. R. O'Brien, classification and parole representative at the prison.

Frye apparently walked away from the camp, O'Brien said. Frye, who arrived at San Quentin in September, 1962, had been at the camp since March 26. He was sentenced in Orange County to a term of six months to five years.

Fairfax Man Faces Trial For Checks

John Lyle Mead, 46, of 7 Napa Street, Fairfax, was bound over to Marin Superior Court yesterday on charges of passing a worthless check and having a prior conviction.

He allegedly passed a $30 check without sufficient funds with intent to defraud Herman Scheppelman and the Pacific National Bank on Feb. 27 in Fairfax. Mead's alleged previous conviction was for a worthless check in October of 1957 in Alameda County.

Bachelor Leaves $421,972 Estate

Ernest Elijah Bower, 74-year-old Marin County resident for 25 years who died last May 27, left an estate of clear market value worth $421,972.96, an inheritance tax appraiser's report revealed yesterday.

Bower, a bachelor and retired passenger agent for Canadian National Railways, resided at 4 Acacia Avenue, Kentfield. Death followed a brief illness. He left his estate to his only known survivor, a brother, Sidney Harold Bower of Stalwart, Saskatchewan, Canada.

The report was filed in Marin Superior Court.

Girl Really Obeyed Her Mother

GREAT BEND, Kan. (AP)—When Mrs. Dale de Kraai's daughter, 7-year-old Kitty, burned the trash for her mother she also burned up an early model car.

Mrs. de Kraai had gone to burn the trash earlier but it was too windy and she put it in the car. When the wind stopped she asked Kitty to burn the trash.

She did, without moving it.

Corner Carwash Plant Denied By Planners

After a lively debate with carwash operator Fred E. Pape over the merits or faults of his plan to build a carwash plant at Francisco and Bellam Boulevards, the San Rafael Planning Commission last night voted 6-1 to deny permission.

Commissioner Carl S. Brown, who had urged that the matter be held over in an effort to modify Pape's plans, voted against denial.

Commissioners agreed with the planning staff that the car wash could create traffic problems at a vital point in the access roads near Highway 101.

Pape argued with Commissioner Orlando Conti, acting city planner Daniel P. Coleman and others, hotly denying that any traffic backup could occur.

Conti, who moved to deny, had to make the motion twice. The first time it died for want of a second, while his fellow commissioners pondered giving Pape a chance to modify his plans.

Growing visibly impatient, chairman Pat Hetherton urged Conti to restate the motion, then seconded it himself "to get the ball rolling."

The commission reaffirmed its earlier approval of a use permit for the proposed Marin Unitarian-Universalist church on Channing Way near the Marin Professional Center.

Original approval was held up when questions arose as to whether the church was obligated to extend Channing Way 80 feet to reach the new church site.

Commissioners last night agreed the problem was settled by a contract recently unearthed in which Commonwealth Development Co., builders of an adjacent subdivision, had agreed to extend the street. But they asked that a verbal opinion by City Atty. David Menary Jr., who had conferred with members of the commission during the day, be put in writing.

The San Rafael Planning Commission also:

1. Granted Audre Easterday of 430 Canal Street a variance on pool equipment he had placed next to a property line without the legal five foot setback. Vote was 5-1, with Commissioner Charles J. Hendrickson voting no and Conti abstaining.
2. Gave architectural approval for remodeling the south facade of the Alibi Club at 1547 Fourth Street.
3. Gave architectural approval for a Wells Fargo Bank building on the north side of Las Gallinas Avenue.
4. Conditionally gave architectural approval to Ussery-Nelson Developments for a 40-unit apartment building on the northwest side of Picnic Avenue near Woodland Avenue. Approval is subject to putting in curbs, widening an entry ramp, and fire department suggestions on need for a hydrant.
5. Gave conditional architectural approval to C, G and K Development Co. for a 17-unit apartment complex on the northwest corner of Bellam Boulevard and Sonoma Street. The commission required that the owners legally eliminate a property line which split the land into two parcels, that utility poles be placed at the rear of the lot, and that final plans be reviewed by the city engineer to prevent possible encroachment on the city sewer easement.
6. Set for May 12 and 26 hearings on a subdivision map for the Porto Bello development.
7. Approved Robert McCarthy Co.'s final subdivision map for the 13-lot Loch Lomond Eight, on an extenison of Dunfries Terrace.
8. Held first hearing on rezoning the front 125 feet below Meyer Road from 10,000 to 20,000 square foot minimum lot sizes. Conti asked for Menary's legal ruling on whether the planners can act on the rezoning while a suit by developer Morden Dunn against the city, dealing with the same area, is pending. Next hearing is May 12.
9. Held first hearing on rezoning Loch Lomond Highlands from an unclassified to single family residential zoning with 10,000 square foot minimum lot sizes. Next hearing is May 12.
10. Deferred until May 12 any action on C. V. Whitlatch's request to approve a three-lot subdivision at D Street on the west side of Wolfe Avenue.
11. Continued until May 12 the tentative map of the 45-lot Highland Vista No. 1 subdivision.
12. Deferred until May 12 the request of James McCone to approve subdivision of two lots, and redivision of two others, at Linden Lane and Glen Park Avenue.
13. Delayed action until May 12 on a tentative map of Earl J. White for a six-lot subdivision on the north side of Irwin Street, called Shady Acres.

Beatles Sellout At Cow Palace

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Great Britain's Beatles, who move into the Cow Palace a month after the Republican National Convention, already are a rafter-hanging sellout.

Cow Palace Manager Ed Diran said yesterday the Liverpool moptops had grossed $90,000 in advance ticket sales.

Tickets for the Aug. 19 performance ranged up to $6.50. The big auditorium has 16,500 seats.

Marin Public Defender Heads Association

Marin County Public Defender Peter Allen Smith has been elected president of the Public Defenders and Legal Aid Assn. of California.

Smith, who was the association's vice-president for the past year, succeeds Edward F. Franke of Los Angeles in the post. He was elected to a one-year term at the group's convention at the Jack Tar Hotel in San Francisco.

Council Asked To Take Over Permit Cases

San Rafael planning commissioners agreed last night that the city council is going to have the last word on whether people should be issued use permits, it might as well take over the whole job, hearings and all.

The commission unanimously passed Commissioner Charles J. Hendrickson's motion, urging the council to take over the hearings, which are held before the planning commission.

Action came after commissioners read a letter from City Atty. David Menary Jr. reporting the council's new policy of making the final decision on each use permit request.

Previously, such requests did not go before the council unless they were denied by the planners and the applicants made an appeal.

Marin Highway Priorities Get Board Approval

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday adopted virtually the same set of priorities for state highway construction approved last year, but the vote was split as Chairman William A. Gnoss fought to raise the priority for the freeway through Novato.

The county request will go to the Redwood Empire Assn. and then to the state Chamber of Commerce as part of a unified request to the State Highway Commission for future budgeting.

Three projects were listed for immediate start of construction, and Public Works Director Donald B. Frost said technically the priority would be the same for each.

However, heading the list was improvement of the Highway 101 freeway from San Quentin Wye to Terra Linda, with special urgency for work at the Irwin Street connection and the interchange at North San Pedro Road.

Frost said 51,000 cars a day go over Puerto Suello Hill and this means traffic jams five days a week. He said the traffic count for Novato on Highway 101 was 22,400 a day.

But, Gnoss pointed out before casting the lone vote against the priority recommendation, Novato has the only stoplights on Highway 101 in Marin County, and these intersections also create traffic tieups.

The third project, after the San Rafael and Novato freeway needs, was Tiburon Boulevard between Bel Aire Road and Belvedere.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr asked about the traffic hazard at Trestle Glen, where the road curves sharply under the Northwestern Pacific Railroad trestle, but was told the accident statistics are not alarming. Frost said 11,500 cars a day use the road.

In category B, which includes projects where planning should be started and right of way purchased, only one route was requested, the freeway between San Rafael and Point Reyes National Seashore.

Driver's Nose Cut As Car Overturns

Michael Jonathan Steele, 23, of San Francisco was treated for a cut nose yesterday at San Rafael General Hospital after his small foreign car overturned on Highway 101 near the California Highway Patrol scale station in Ignacio at 8:15 a.m.

Steele, northbound on the highway, overcorrected his steering when he was about to run into a passing car. He was cited by the highway patrol for failure to drive in the marked traffic lane.

Mrs. Vilas Decides To Speak After All

Mrs. Georgette Vilas, trustee of the Lagunitas School District who is fighting recall Tuesday, spoke last night after all to about 35 persons at the school.

Earlier she announced that she would not speak after her opponent, William G. McBride, declined to appear at the meeting.

Registered Nurse Course Discussed

College of Marin officials and representatives of the medical and nursing profession in Marin County last night ranged over the problems and possibilities in establishing a registered nursing course at the college.

At the end of the meeting, Robert E. Rogers, only member of the Marin Junior College District board present, said, "The board is receptive to expanding the college into the field of nursing training."

The next step would be for the district board to approve the program and allocate $15,000 in the budget for the first year. This would cover the salary of a director and clerical expenses starting next fall.

The first class would not start at the college until the fall semester of 1965. It was estimated that costs for the college during that school year would be $31,000.

Representatives of Ross, Marin General and San Rafael General Hospitals pledged support of the program. Arthur G. Burns, administrator of San Rafael General Hospital, said his hospital could provide more support in three years when a new facility is built. He said an architect would be selected next week.

Calvin Plumhof, president of the Marin Medical Society, said San Rafael General Hospital could assist in the program before it moved into its new facility. He termed San Rafael's nursing staff "second to none" in the county.

Plumhoff pointed out that many Marin County doctors teach at medical schools in the Bay Area and could give lectures to the nursing students.

College president Stephen E. Epler said, however, that instructors had to have junior college credentials, while at state colleges and universities this was not necessary.

"We are trying to get rid of these kindergarten laws," he said. "Junior colleges are treated as children."

Helen F. Watters, director of nursing at Marin General Hospital, said students taking vocational nursing courses at the college are "very well accepted" by patients in the hospitals.

There were references throughout the meeting to part of the cost of the program being underwritten by a private source. The Babcock Foundation has expressed interest in financing a nursing program, rather than further construction projects.

Hearing On Hospital Denial Is Set May 19

The Marin Hospital District board last night set for May 19 at 3 p.m. the first session of the public hearing requested by Dr. Stanford W. Ascherman of San Francisco on denial of surgical privileges at the hospital.

The hearing will start at 3 p.m. in the hospital annex. Hours for the hearing, expected to last about one month, will be from 3 to 5 p.m. and from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

After the first hearing, further sessions will be adjourned to June 8, when the hearing officer, John C. McDonough, acting dean of the Stanford University Law School, will be available on a regular basis.

The Marin Hospital District board also:

1. Accepted $10,000 from the Marin Charitable Foundation for an auto analyzer, $10,000 from the in-service volunteers for beds in the west wing and completion of the intensive care heart unit, and $1,941 from the founders auxiliary to furnish two rooms.

2. Heard a request from Dr. Paul Kingsley for bus service to the hospital and the medical office building at 559 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

3. Agreed with a letter from the Department of Public Health that a recent court decision states that a doctor may not be denied staff privileges at a hospital because of race, creed or color.

4. Approved a raise in pay for registered nurses at the hospital from a minimum of $385 a month to $400 with the maximum pay to be $520.

5. Heard a letter from Dr. Edward W. Cook complaining of the lack of air conditioning in the emergency room area.

Tomales School Unionization Is Called For

The Tomales Bay School District board last night passed a resolution calling for a unionization election on July 28 of all elementary school districts in the Tomales High School District.

The election would be called jointly by Marin and Sonoma counties, said Floyd Billigmeier, principal of the school. The Board in each district must vote for the election.

The trustees spent the rest of the meeting interviewing two applicants for the principal's job. Billigmeier has resigned effective June 30.

Larkspur Unit Backs Unification

The Larkspur School District board last night voted unanimously in favor of the proposal to unify the Tamalpais Union High School District, which will be presented to voters June 2.

Board member Curtis P. Kamai, a candidate for the board of the unified district, said the proposal "provides for equal educational opportunities for all the children within this system and it provides a direct benefit to the district and all the other school districts."

The Larkspur School District board also:

1. Established a program whereby teachers would report for a five-day teacher workshop starting on Aug. 31 prior to opening of schools.

2. Hired Lois Anderson as a librarian and Roy Lutzi as a sixth grade teacher at the Larkspur-Corte Madera School and accepted the resignation of Lydia Apt, kindergarten teacher, who will teach overseas next year.

Board Insists On Sewers For Tam Woods

Sewers must be installed as soon as possible in the Tamalpais Woods subdivision area, the county board of supervisors decided yesterday.

If a voluntary assessment district is stymied by a lack of petition signatures, then an assessment district should be forced, the board ruled.

William L. Desmond, head of the sanitation division of the health department, said he would ask directors of the Tamalpais Sanitary District to agree to force such a district, allowed by state law where a health hazard has been declared. But he warned the district board may not agree to the plan, which requires a four-fifths vote. He said the board was not enthusiastic about annexing the area.

If the district gives up jurisdiction, Supervisor Peter H. Behr reminded Desmond, the board of supervisors can take jurisdiction and force the assessment district. He said he was ready to take such action.

Desmond said several septic tanks in the area have failed and some people must walk through raw sewage, running down the streets, to reach their homes. Children are playing in raw sewage, he asserted.

The voluntary assessment petition is about 13 per cent short of the required number of signatures for approval, Desmond said, and gaining signatures has been slow.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors also:

1. Asked representatives of Milland Development Co. and Eichler Homes to attend Tuesday's meeting to reach an agreement on construction of a road to serve the Harbor Point area.

2. Approved a project by the Marin Rod and Gun Club to use fish and game fine money for clean-up of Papermill Creek and possible land purchases at Whitehouse pool near Point Reyes Station.

3. Asked County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney to report on ways the county might subsidize San Rafael bus lines to maintain daytime service to the Civic Center.

4. Referred the question of renewing the option to purchase or lease the Novato Airport to the budget agenda.

5. Sold $650,000 worth of San Rafael Elementary School District bonds to the Bank of America, lowest of eight bidders with an interest rate of 3.1981 per cent for a total cost of $308,761.

6. Referred an offer by photographer Lucile Dandelet for sale of photographs of the Civic Center for use on postcards to purchasing agent John B. Hettrich.

7. Approved a contract with C. D. Maasen, Inc., Corte Madera, lowest of four bidders at $2,298.39, to extend sidewalks on North San Pedro Road from Merrydale Road to Los Ranchitos Road.

8. Referred to the public works department a request by Mrs. Charles E. Kelly, 38 Matilda Avenue, Mill Valley, for more pedestrian crossings of Highway 101 in South Marin. Public works director Donald R. Frost said they would be very expensive.

9. Called for bids May 26 for sale of two parcels of county property, a small strip of surplus land on Paradise Drive 11 feet wide, with a minimum bid of $650, and a house and lot at 127 C Street, San Rafael, donated recently to the county, with a minimum bid of $18,500.

10. Approved "clean-up" grading plans for the quarry operation by Matich, Garnier and Long near Highway 121 at Black Point.

11. Approved an adjustment for McGraw-Hill Book Publishing Co. to allow a start on construction of a warehouse and distribution center on 100 acres north of Novato without first filing a master plan.

12. Approved application by San Rafael Associates to split about 38,000 square feet at 2225 and 2227 Center Road, into three lots, but turned down a request by Kenneth Schlobohm to further divide one of the new lots into two more lots.

13. Approved a use permit for six years for Frank H. Smaw to allow each lot in Tally-Ho Acres, near Novato, to have two horses kept on the property.

14. Set a hearing May 19 on rezoning of land to be developed by Kaehler-Farrar Development Co., south of the Lucas Valley road interchange, to planned residential and planned commercial zoning. Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker said he would ask a night meeting on the proposed townhouse development plans for the area.

15. Agreed not to meet the week of the June primary.

16. Appointed Inga R. Stokes intermediate typist clerk, assessor's office, Gretchen Grote intermediate typist clerk and Ellen Bovard intermediate clerk, Welfare Department, and Dr. Theodore Hiatt, deputy county physician, medical department.

17. Promoted Thomas B. Estes from supervising probation officer I to supervision probation officer II.

Hurt In Accident

Cecelia Manning, 28, of 63 Upper Cresent Avenue, Sausalito, was treated for a cut forehead today at Marin General Hospital after being involved in a two-car accident on Bridgeway near Gate Five Road in Sausalito at about 8 a.m.

School Organization Members To Be Seated

The Marin County Committee on School District Organization will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in the Novato High School cafeteria to officially seat two new members, David D. Ring and Mrs. A. E. Larson.

At 8 p.m. the committee will be augmented by representatives of local school districts to consider unification of Novato and San Jose school districts.

Birth Control Clinic Donation Is Offered

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Saratoga woman is planning to offer the San Francisco Board of Supervisors a donation of $10,840 for a birth control clinic.

The amount replaces exactly the sum deleted recently by Mayor John F. Shelley from the Health Department budget, intended to finance a birth control clinic next year.

Fostmeier Construction Co. of Petaluma last night was awarded the contract for building the first two clusters of Reed School District's Granada School, on a base bid of $235,500, lowest of three received.

Pacific Coast Builders of San Francisco bid $275,500, and Royce Hall of Napa, $284,000.

Grading, drainage, utilities and site improvements, bid separately, ran the Fostmeier total to $270,100.

Award of the contract is subject to approval by the state allocation board. If approved at the May meeting of that board, construction will begin immediately.

Supt. Edward C. Pino said the project includes two large clusters, each equivalent to five regular classrooms, and a double kindergarten unit. Each cluster will be one large room without partitions and will be carpeted throughout. In addition, each will contain a team planning center and a curriculum laboratory.

One cluster will house 75 to 100 six, seven and eight-year-olds, and the second cluster a like number of nine, 10 and 11-year-olds, said Pino.

Most of the pupils at Granada School will be from Corte Madera since the Reed Union School District laps over into that town where Paradise Drive joins Highway 101.

Rooms For Deaf Pose A Problem

The San Rafael Board of Education last night was posed a problem as to where to put special classrooms for the deaf and hard of hearing—if it decides to build them.

Supt. Bert C. Corona said a county-wide citizen committee on education of such students had requested four classrooms be built at Laurel Dell Intermediate School. He noted that money for such special classrooms was included in the bond authorization recently passed.

However, pointed out Corona, the Laurel Dell Intermediate campus is small, and the use by children there of the adjoining Davidson Junior High grounds will be cut down by planned additions at Davidson.

To complicate matters, he said, use of a room at Short School for teaching the hard of hearing may have to be discontinued because of increased enrollment at Short due to "150 apartments being constructed in the area." Short School, he suggested, may need to be expanded from a kindergarten-fourth grade to a kindergarten-sixth grade school.

A possible long-run solution, suggested Corona, would be to turn over three rooms at Laurel Dell for the hard of hearing program, build one additional special classroom there, and expand Short School. But that cannot be done "until our next bond issue," said the superintendent.

Board members put the matter over to next meeting.

The board put off decision, also, on whether to install a sidewalk along the edge of the parking area at Terra Linda High School, board president C. Paul Bettini objecting that when Nova Albion Drive is completed, the high school district will probably have to put in another driveway "six feet from this one."

Board member John M. Bagshaw wanted to go ahead with the walk, estimated to cost $1,900, regardless. His motion failed 3-to-2, however, only Bella H. Aaron joining Bagshaw in voting "yes."

The board voted unanimously to place four street lights along the edge of the parking area to light the students' path, however.

Two architect firms — Reid and Tarics of San Francisco and Crawford and Banning of San Rafael—made presentations in seeking to be appointed for the elementary school district construction program. John Lyon Reid made his firm's presentation largely in the form of colored slides, which proved "a hard act to follow" for Eugene Crawford, who spoke for himself and partner George V. Banning. The board hopes to decide on an architect next Tuesday night.

The San Rafael Board of Education also:

1. Approved hiring the following teachers for next school year: Lynn M. Jackson, primary grades, who has been teaching kindergarten in Franklin Lakes, N.J.; Mrs. Mary D. Johnson, intermediate grades, who has been a substitute this year and formerly taught at E Street and Santa Venetia schools; Marsha J. Leahy, primary grades, who is receiving her master's degree from Stanford University in June; Patricia Mahoney, intermediate grades, also receiving a master's degree from Stanford in June; John R. McSween, elementary school foreign language, a former Air Force counterintelligence agent; Mary E. Schubert, intermediate grades, who has been teaching in San Diego; Henry F. Stolfi, high school mathematics, a retired Coast Guard captain, and Mrs. Elizabeth W. Ward, primary grades, who has been teaching in Oak View, Ventura County.

2. Approved transferring Josephine Boca, nurse, from San Rafael High School to the elementary district next year, and transferring Martin Parlan, mathematics teacher now on sabbatical leave, from the elementary district to the high school district.

3. Accepted resignations of Dr. Margaret A. L. Drake, high school district psychologist; John P. Frazer, Terra Linda High School mathematics teacher; Donald R. Greenfield, San Rafael High School industrial arts teacher; Valda Holleman, Terra Linda High English teacher; Mrs. Donna Z. Pitts, Short School third grade teacher, and Lois Powell, San Rafael High physical education teacher, all effective June 30.

4. Approved appointment of Mrs. Pearl Harrington as secretary at MacPhail School, effective this week, and accepted resignation of Mrs. Louise Callon, secretary at Short School, effective June 30.

5. Accepted a recommendation by the secondary administrators' council that the plan to send entering freshmen from San Jose School District to Terra Linda High School next fall be carried out unchanged. Superintendent Corona said earlier objections by some of the San Rafael High School faculty had been resolved.

6. Accepted a 41-page civil defense handbook prepared by administrators and teachers.

7. Agreed to disposal of 330 copies of obsolete books. Corona said some of them will be given to the Nigerian book drive sponsored by the Naturalists Club at College of Marin.

8. Reappointed May, LaFrance and Co. as district auditors for next year at not to exceed $1,500. Board president Bettini was told, in answer to a question, that no Marin firm had applied for the job.

9. Called for bids on janitorial supplies for next year, to be opened May 15 at 10 a.m.

10. Met in closed session early today, after concluding the open meeting, to discuss selection of an assistant superintendent.

Republican Committee Candidates Campaign

Twenty-six of the 33 candidates running for Marin Republican Central Committee appeared before the central committee last night at the county courthouse to present brief campaign speeches.

Gerald E. Misner, chairman of the central committee, said none of the speakers came out directly for either Sen. Barry Goldwater or Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

However, a majority of those attending last night's meeting wore Goldwater buttons and several speakers lashed out against the seven-man delegation from the state legislature that is touring the state to plug Rockefeller.

Introduced at the meeting was San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis, who is running for county supervisor against incumbent Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker.

Central committeemen decided that an appreciation dinner for Rep. Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) would be held Monday, June 15, at Peacock Gap Country Club in San Rafael. The date is subject to confirmation by Clausen.

Richard Herndon, vice president of the Bay Area Republican Alliance, announced that George Murphy, seeking the Republican nomination for U.S. Senate, will speak in Marin on May 6. Murphy will speak at an 8 p.m. dinner at Dominic's Restaurant in San Rafael. A no-host cocktail hour will precede the dinner.

Rafferty Chided For His Absence

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Dr. Max Rafferty was chided by a Merced assemblyman yesterday for making a chamber of commerce speech in Indiana while the California Board of Education was drafting proposals to alleviate racial unrest in California's schools.

Democrat Gordon Winton, a member of the Assembly education committee, noted that the superintendent held a news conference last Friday to urge that the schools commemorate the 10th anniversary of the U.S. Supreme Court decision which made racial segregation illegal.

"But today, as the board meets in San Francisco to consider concrete proposals, where is Rafferty?" Winton asked. "He is in Indianapolis, addressing a meeting sponsored there by the local chamber of commerce."

Wife Is Back

Mrs. Patricia S. Benioff, 37-year-old Tiburon housewife, reported missing yesterday, was back safely at home today. Her husband, Robert, become worried when she was gone overnight from the family home at 17 Tanfield Road.

College Of Marin Students Elect

David Lehman of Corte Madera, College of Marin student body president, yesterday was elected president of the graduating class.

Wylma Black of San Anselmo was elected secretary and Rich Coburn was chosen student speaker at graduation ceremonies.

The class decided that it would hold its outing May 23 at Bolinas, with more detailed plans to be made at a May 7 meeting.

Martha Washington's watch had two cases, one enamel and one gold.

Prospects Of Dirt Slow Reed School Site Action

The grumbling of 20 homeowners over the prospect of 35,000 rumbling truck loads of dirt slowed Reed School District trustees in acquisition of a North Central School site last night.

The "knoll site" behind Little Reed Heights and Del Mar Estates has been given favored consideration by Supt. Edward C. Pino, over the "ridge site" which is on an extension of Hycienda Drive.

At least four plans have been prepared for development of the knoll site by the architectural firm of Reid and Tarics. The first involved cutting and hauling away 800,000 cubic yards of dirt providing a 10-acre site; the second would have moved only 690,000 cubic yards. The plan discussed last night called for moving 350,000 cubic yards with possible cuts up to 55 feet in depth for a 7.6-acre site.

The cost of this would be difficult to estimate, the board learned. E. Warren McGuire, San Rafael attorney for Triangle Builders, Inc., who own the knoll site, said 35,000 one-way trips would have to be made by 10-wheel trucks carrying 10 cubic yards of dirt each trip.

The architect's fourth plan, to utilize balanced cut and fill of 275,000 cubic yards, has been blocked by the Marin County Planning Commission because of a proposed county road through the site. Trustee Leo Souza suggested the planning commission be approached again.

The ridge site is not "educationally feasible," according to Pino. It has poor weather and is farther from the center of existing and projected attendance areas, he said. Use of the ridge site would involve moving 90,000 cubic yards.

The board agreed to study the ridge site further.

Reed School District trustees also:

1. Granted Joyce Wilson sabbatical leave during next school year.
2. Approved a site development change order for Granada Elementary School to correct unstable soil conditions, in the amount of $6,022.
3. Engaged the firm of Abbot A. Hanks, Inc., San Rafael, to perform soil mechanics and materials testing on the Granada School, and hired Charles Schraeder as building inspector on the same job.
4. Called for bids for transportation of students, to be received at the superintendent's office until 5 p.m., May 20 and opened at the meeting of May 26, at 8 p.m.

The board adjourned to an executive session to consider hiring a principal for Granada School. Trustee Richard J. MacLaury was absent.

State Aide Rules Out Tube Crossing

A traffic tube under the bay between San Francisco and Marin was ruled out as too costly a project yesterday by Chief Engineer E. R. Foley of the State Division of Bay Toll Crossings.

In answer to a request from San Francisco Supervisor Leo McCarthy, Foley dredged up a seven-year-old study on possible tube crossings. The study concluded then that the cost of the project would not be justified in light of the use it would receive.

Most probable route for a tunnel in the study was one running from Van Ness Avenue near Filbert Street, along the north edge of Angel Island to Tiburon, near Sam's restaurant.

Last week Stephan Leonoudakis, a director of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District and Supervisor McCarthy's law partner, urged fellow directors to make a study of tube crossings. Directors shelved the suggestion until after completion of a second crossing study.

Burglary Case To Superior Court

William P. Maloney, 22, of 927 East Blithedale Avenue, Mill Valley, was bound over to Marin Superior Court today on a charge of burglary.

He allegedly took about $800 worth of office equipment from the office of Dr. Lee M. Cecil, 714 C Street, San Rafael, last month.

A burglary complaint against a second man in the incident, Terrance T. Tsegeletos, 19, of 275 Karen Way, Bel Aire, has been dismissed for insufficient evidence, records disclose.

Man Bound Over On Receiving Charge

Dennis L. Fredericks, 19, of 20 Green Way, San Rafael, was bound over to Marin Superior Court yesterday on a charge of receiving stolen property.

He was arrested Feb. 29 in an incident involving loss of about $400 worth of mechanics tools from John Kean, 102 Wreden Avenue, Fairfax.

NOVATO COUNCIL INTRODUCES RACY LAW AGAINST SQUEALERS

Hot rodders beware! It's going to be illegal to burn rubber in Novato.

The Novato City Council last night introduced an ordinance which makes it illegal to accelerate so rapidly that the car leaves skid marks or the tires squeal.

"Isn't this illegal now?" asked Councilman J. Wayne Womack.

"We have cited them under every section of the vehicle code we can think of, but the judge has ruled it out each time," replied City Administrator J. Julien Baget.

Baget said under the new ordinance a driver could be cited, regardless of his car's speed, if he squeals the tires or leaves skid marks.

Novato Council Begins Streamlining Operation

The Novato City Council last night began to streamline its operation.

Following suggestions at the first meeting of the new council last week, City Administrator J. Julien Baget presented a list of five areas in which he though the council could save time during meetings.

These included opening bids prior to the meeting, having ordinances prepared for presentation at the end of public hearings rather than waiting until the next meeting, having the council pass a traffic ordinance placing traffic safety matters in the hands of the administration; having the administration answer all letters addressed to the council and give the council copies, and having planning commission decisions final in matters of adjustments, use permits, sign permits and subdivision map exceptions, subject to appeal to the council.

The council referred the suggestions to City Atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. to check which could be adopted as council policy and which would require ordinances.

New Councilman William Jack Adams also wanted to eliminate the starting roll call, approval of the agenda for the meeting, receipt of letters, and roll call votes on all items. He called the last a "meaningless ritual."

Councilman J. Wayne Womack objected, saying he wanted his vote recorded on each matter.

The council also made official Mayor Robert D. Carrow's suggestion, offered on his election, that the offices of mayor and mayor pro tempore be voted on at the first meeting in April.

To take some of the work from the mayor, the council voted to have city checks require only the signatures of the city clerk, Baget, and city treasurer Peter Ferrarese.

Douglas M. Merrill, who was elected to the council on April 14 but is still in Australia, sent a cablegram with his resignation from the city planning commission.

James F. McConnell of 653 McClay Road, Novato, suggested in a letter that John H. Miklos of 815 Reichert Avenue, fill the vacancy on the planning commission. On suggestion of Womack, however, Mayor Carrow agreed asked for public suggestions and put the appointment over for two weeks.

Lee C. Wise, manager of the Novato branch of Pacific Gas and Electric Co., said his company had a request before the State Public Utilities Commission to change the present type of Novato street lights to mercury vapor lamps which would cost the city less to operate. The council agreed to delay a street lighting master plan until a decision on this was given by the state.

The Novato City Council Also:

1. Continued until May 26 formation of the Scottsdale Assessment District and awarding a contract for public improvements in the district.
2. Introduced the uniform county animal control ordinance
3. Approved a subdivision ordinance requiring certain whole parcels, such as plots for supermarkets, to go through the subdivision procedure of submitting preliminary and final maps. It also created a planned single family residential district with the net area for lots of 7,500 per lot.
4. Authorized the firm of Whitlow, Hoffman and Albritton of San Rafael to do the engineering on the South Novato Boulevard bridge over Warner Creek for seven per cent of the construction costs, and soil testing not to exceed $900.
5. Approved a three-way agreement with the North Marin Water District and Novato Fire District to share costs on a radio transmitter on water district property. This will cost the city $300 for the building and $400 for installation of the transmitter.
6. Authorized Lawrence A. Coleman, director of public works, to make a street deficiency study as required by the state, to qualify Novato for gasoline tax money.
7. Approved an extension for John Novak Inc. until July 23 to complete the improvements on St. Francis Heights units 3 and 4 and the Cherry Avenue subdivision of 12 acres.
8. Accepted $57.70 from the Novato Lob Ball League for the general recreation fund.
9. Recommended appointment of Councilman Lucile Cannon to the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District board; Mrs. Patricia Reynolds, secretary of the chamber of commerce, to the Marin County Human Rights Commission, and Mayor Carrow as delegate and Adams as alternate to the executive committee of the North Bay League of Cities.
10. Denied Richard Maldonado a nursery sales office at 1751 Novato Boulevard. This was previously denied by the planning commission and appealed to the council.
11. Introduced ordinances changing the zoning for certain areas in San Marin.
12. Referred a letter from Thomas D. Hardcastle of 7 English Court, requesting the annexation of 29 homes in the Parkwood subdivision, to the planning department for study to see if a larger area of West Novato could be annexed.
13. Approved hearing a review of a swim school at 808 Reichert Avenue on May 12, the day following the planning commission's consideration of it at the request of John F. Musser Jr., who intends to start such a school in his own pool.
14. Approved payment of March claims for $75,187.18 and adjourned to next Tuesday for a work session with department heads.

Foreign Students Novato 'Citizens'

Honorary citizenship in Novato was given last night by Mayor Robert D. Carrow to Gerge Martinoli and Robert Stevens, foreign exchange students at Novato High School. Marinoli, of Argentina, and Stevens, from Australia, were given certificates bestowing the citizenship on them.

Mrs. Richard G. Prasil of 1406 Buchanan Street, president of the Novato Community Ambassadors, presented the youths to the council. She gave a brief history of the community ambassadors work. The organization has raised funds to send five Novato youths overseas and bring seven to Novato. It also arranged for 22 foreign exchange students t ospend one month in Novato last summer, and for Mexican children to spend a week at West Novato School before Christmas.

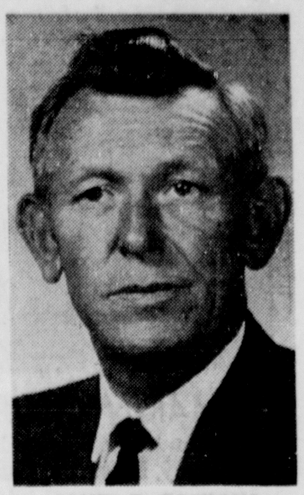
DEMO NOMINEE HITS RUMFORD INITIATIVE

Pockrus Lambastes Bagley For 'Kicking' Consumer Counsel; Cites Rights, Jobless

Civil rights, population pressures and unemployment caused by automation are the crucial problems today, the Democratic candidate for State Assembly declared last night at the Mill Valley American Legion Hall.

James E. Pockrus, 45, a Sebastopol school teacher, spoke to about 25 members of the Mill Valley Democratic Club. He is challenging William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) for the assembly post from the seventh district (Marin-Sonoma).



JAMES E. POCKRUS
Plain speaker

Without wasting or mincing words, Pockrus lashed out against the California Real Estate Assn. initiative that would nullify the Rumford Fair Housing Act.

If the initiative is approved, it "would legalize prejudice in the state of California," Pockrus declared.

He promised to work for abolition of capital punishment in California because the death penalty hits "the poor, the uneducated, and minority groups."

Pockrus also lauded the work of the consumer counsel in protecting the housewife from fraudulent advertising. He charged that Assemblyman Bagley, "in kicking the consumer counsel may be kicking that box of dynamite that will kick him back to San Rafael."

Pockrus also charged that the incumbent "would take money from Aid to Needy Children" to increase aid to schools. "I find it extremely difficult to teach a hungry child," said Pockrus. "I think this is the kind of equalization that we don't need."

He is opposed to filling of the bay. He called for acquisition of open land now for future recreation and park sites to provide elbow room for population pressures.

Pockrus warned that 40,000 persons are being thrown out of work each week because of automation. He called for an expansion of the governor's commission to study this problem. On the commission, Pockrus would include "not only labor but those unemployed victims of automation."

He favors some consolidation of school districts, "on a kindergarten through high school senior level," with enrollment of between 2,000 and 10,000 in a school district. He called for some type of county-wide school tax, with allocation of funds based on the number of school children in each district.

During the question period, Pockrus indicated he leans toward acceptance of the nuclear plant at Bodega Head. The safety factor, he would leave to the experts to decide. Any opposition to the nuclear plant must be on the basis of conservation, said Pockrus. If the plant would seriously affect marine life, then he would oppose it.

He favors lowering the requirement for passage of school bond issues from the present two-thirds majority to a simple majority.

An Army enlisted man for 18 years, Pockrus was discharged in 1957 and won his degrees in business administration and education. He teaches science and mathematics at Gravenstein School and also operates a bookkeeping service in Rohnert Park.

He said he decided to run because no one else wanted to run against Assemblyman Bagley, and he feels no incumbent should be re-elected by default.

Stabbed Prisoner In Good Condition

Louis Gonzales, 29-year-old San Quentin inmate who was stabbed in the back by an unknown assailant Saturday, was reported in good condition today and on the verge of being released from the prison hospital.

San Quentin officials have not uncovered any suspect or motive in the stabbing, according to J. R. O'Brien, classification and parole representative at the prison.

FYI School Plans Open House Saturday

Marin May Play Part In Regional Radio System For Shipping

Marin County will play an important part in a new regional radio system to serve Golden Gate shipping if directors of Marine Exchange, Inc., San Francisco, make up their minds by May 15 that results of a recently concluded 60-day test justify setting up a permanent network.

The network would link all pilots, lift bridges, ports and terminals, floating equipment operators and others into a common communication system for the first time in any major United States harbor.

The key component is a 24-hour Marine Exchange ship lookout station at Pier 45, San Francisco, where vessel movement reports (a service since 1849) are conducted. This, along with a station at Beacon Hill, Sausalito, for distant points, will enable ship reporters for the first time in history to talk to pilots moving vessels over the bar and in the bay and river system. Participating pilots also have the opportunity to call each other.

RAY DELL'OSSO of Physicians Optical Co., has signed a lease for a third and new optical shop in the Northgate Medical Center. Physicians Optical shops are now located at 712 D Street and 1526 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael.

ROBERT M. PETERZON, actuary for Industrial Indemnity Co., has been elected an officer of the company. He has served in various financial and analytical positions with Industrial for the past 18 years.

WILLIAM R. KIMBALL of Kentfield, president of Cyclops, Inc., San Francisco manufacturer of heavy duty cranes and material handling equipment, reports that his company has received a million-dollar contract to supply cranes and hoists for the new NASA Moon Base Building at Cape Kennedy. The building (52 stories high) will house the vertical assembling of the Saturn V rocket. Cyclops was selected for the NASA contract by Morris-Knudsen, Perini and Hardeman, general contractors.

GORDON J. (BUD) ISEMAN of Budds Travel and Tours, San Rafael, recently returned from Africa and liked it so much he's decided to take a group of Marinites with him on his next trip—which will leave Sept. 6 for a month. The safari takes in a number of recognized attractions — Kruger Park, Nairobi National Park, Mount Kilimanjaro, Victoria Falls, the mine dancers in Joburg, game spotting on the Zambesi, and visits to native markets and villages.

LEONARD MAJORE of Brunner's Major Cleaners and Laundry, San Rafael, notes that his company has been accepted for membership in both the National Institute of Drycleaning and the California Drycleaners Assn. The National Institute is a trade association representing more than 8,500 plants throughout the United States and in 42 foreign countries.

The firm listed its officers as Anthony F. Costello, president; Virgil F. Breen, vice-president and treasurer, and Michael J. Scotto, secretary.

Savings, Loan Assets Record Is Predicted

NEW YORK (AP)—Assets of the California savings and loan industry will reach nearly 24 billion dollars in 1964, a gain of about 20 per cent over the 1963 asset total of 20.6 billion dollars, an industry spokesman has predicted.

Franklin Hardinge Jr., executive vice president of the California Savings and Loan League, said the California industry's growth rate is slowing down somewhat. He said this lessening in growth rate was a healthy thing for the industry.

Hardinge said the savings and loan business in California is going through a period of consolidation, strengthening of reserves, and tightening up of operations.

Market Sharply Lower, Ticker Tape Runs Late

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was sharply lower at the close today. Final trading was heavy. The ticker tape was late.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.9 million shares compared with 4.82 million yesterday.

A small early advance faded and the list showed gains and losses running mostly from fractions to about a point.

An exception was Texas Gulf Sulphur which ran up half a dozen points as it paced the market on volume.

Curtis Publishing was brought heavily and trading had to be halted in the stock when it reached 13½, a gain of 1⅝

Du Pont fell about 4 points and Polaroid more than 3. Off more than a point were Pan American World Airways, Zenith, United Air Lines, Jones and Laughlin and Eastern Air Lines.

Oils were a strong spot. Standard of Indiana gained 2.

Rails were generally lower. New York Central was off nearly a point.

General Motors was up close to a point, Ford was off a fraction.

IBM, Control Data and U.S. Smelting fell about a point each.

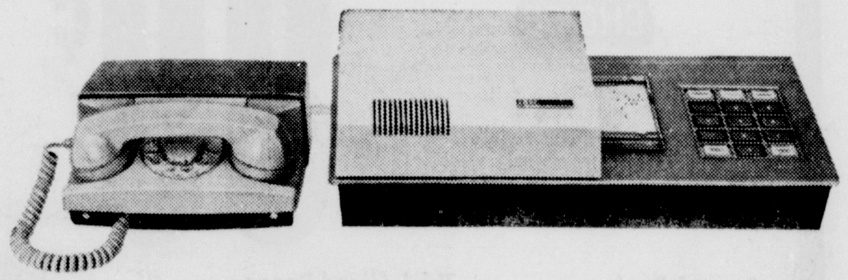
Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were mostly unchanged.

A proved business service for the medical profession

An automated accounting system to save time and reduce costs

UCB medac



What is Medac? It is the application of modern electronics to the business needs of doctors. A fully-automated billing, bookkeeping and accounting system, Medac was specially developed for the medical profession to save the valuable time of nurses or office aides with bookkeeping responsibilities, and to reduce operating costs. As reported in AMA News, Medac has been tested and proved in actual practicé.

Heart of the system is a simple electronic transmitter on the office aide's desk and through which, by means of your regular telephone connection, accounting and billing data is relayed to a convenient UCB computer center. Patients' ledger cards remain in your office at all times.

What exactly does it do for doctors? It allows a doctor's aide to handle all necessary bookkeeping work in a fraction of the usual time required, freeing her for more important work.

It establishes an organized operations and filing system and a uniform method of bookkeeping regardless of personnel turnover.

It prepares and mails all monthly billing statements automatically—one copy to your patient, a duplicate copy to you. Medac also provides built-in bill collection service with automatic over-due bill reminders.

It provides daily cash receipts and charges journal to give a running record of income.

It provides a complete statement of assets and liabilities every 10 days.

It gives you full internal control of billings and payments through the preparation of statements by a third party.

It protects your vital records against loss by fire, theft or mishandling. It helps your accountant serve you more efficiently by providing records that are both orderly and standardized.

Is Medac expensive? Medac pays for itself in savings in bookkeeping time...equipment costs...form costs...preparation and mailing of monthly statements. Experience of doctors who use Medac has shown that more patients pay their bills more quickly when billed by Medac.

How can I learn more? By simply calling collect EX 7-2022 and asking for Medac, by mailing the coupon below, or by contacting your nearest UCB office. Information about Medac will be rushed to you; if you desire, a demonstration of Medac may be arranged at your convenience.

Man Heavily Guarded In Hearing On Fight

An albino Negro under heavy police protection was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday afternoon on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon in an early Saturday fracas outside a San Rafel restaurant which cost his opponent his left eye.

The defendant, James Ernest Terrell of Vallejo, was given a court continuance until 1:30 p.m. Tuesday to obtain counsel. He is free on $1,100 bail.

Terrell, with only partial eyesight, allegedly lashed out with a broken glass, cutting the face of Louis M. Molles Jr., 27, of 11 Roger Drive, San Rafael, in a fight at the King Cotton restaurant, 831 Francisco Boulevard.

Molles was taken to University of California Hospital where the eye was removed. Police said reason for the fight was unknown. It started when Terrell asked Molles for a match.

Some 15 Marin County sheriff's officers and San Rafael police, who said they heard a "rumble" was scheduled by San Rafael friends of Molles, kept close vigilance in the courtroom and hallways.

Sheriff's Capt. Sidney Stinson said more than a dozen acquaintances of Molles appeared as Terrell left the courthouse. The latter was ushered into a car with three friends, however, and a police car and a sheriff's car escorted the group to a Richmond home of other friends.

New Diet Gets Excellent Results

OAKLAND (AP) — A diet to lower blood cholesterol and fats, which some doctors believe is associated with heart attacks, has produced excellent results, says a diet study director.

He is Dr. Laurance W. Kinsell, director of the National Diet-Heart Study in Oakland, who is supervising a project involving 227 men between 45 and 54.

The diet, said Dr. Kinsell, composes specially manufactured low fat food. It is being tested in several U.S. cities under sponsorship of the National Institute of Health.

Dogs Killing Sheep Again

The second case of two German shepherd dogs killing sheep in two days was reported yesterday afternoon to Novato police.

Warren P. Kingsley of 680 McClay Road, told police he was awakened about 5 a.m. by noise in his sheep pen. Before he could get out to stop them, two German shepherd dogs had killed seven sheep.

Just the day before a neighbor, Robert F. Rayan of 728 McClay Road, Novato, also reported that his four sheep were killed by two German shepherd dogs about 5 a.m.

Nicasio School Tax Hike Due Discussion

A public hearing on the need for doubling the limitation on the Nicasio School District operating tax from 80 cents to $1.60 per $100 of assessed valuation will be held at the school at 8 p.m. today.

Vote on raising the tax limitation will be held June 2. Trustees say the increase is needed because of former tax land lost to the Nicasio Reservoir and because of increased operating costs.

The Jordan River begins in a sacred grove high on the 9,232-foot Mount Herman on the Syrian-Lebanese border, runs down to Israel's Lake Huleh and on to the Sea of Galilee.

Glum Cepeda Home, Awaits Further Word On Ailment

A glum Orlando Cepeda commenced the long wait today until next Monday when he undergoes further examination of an injured right knee that knocked him and his .500 batting average out of the San Francisco Giants' lineup.

"The knee began to feel very heavy last night," Cepeda said yesterday after arriving in San Francisco by plane from Chicago where the Giants are slated to face the Cubs today. "The doctors say it will be about two weeks before I play again. I have to stay off it as much as possible. But I'll be going to the ballpark to take heat treatments."

Cepeda arrived at the near-deserted airport carrying his ever-present record player.

"I feel good in every way except for this knee," he said. "Whenever I try to make a quick start, it hurts."

He re-aggravated an old injury during the second game of the season when he was thrown out trying to steal second base against Milwaukee.

As a result of the mishap, he went on limited service. Then the Giants sent him to New York on Monday where Dr. Harrison McLaughlin diagnosed the ailment as water on the knee complicated by pulled thigh muscles.

"I'm not thinking about the .500 average," Orlando shrugged yesterday in the airport lounge after posing with one leg propped up on the phonograph. "But I was part of a lineup that was supposed to stay together, now I'm out of it and I'm disappointed."

Cepeda recalled that he had injured the same knee twice on two previous years.

"In 1961, I hurt it when I collided with (catcher) John Roseboro of the Dodgers," Cepeda said. "In 1962 I hurt it again during an exhibition game with Cleveland."

Manager Alvin Dark said in Chicago that he probably would stick with Willie McCovey at first base.

"Cepeda's got to go home and rest," Dark said. "He's got instructions to stay off the leg, and I just hope that Monday's examination will be more favorable and that he can get back quicker."

Cepeda got six hits in his first seven times at bat this season.

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

By JIM GILMARTIN

Murphy—The Cool, Calm Irishman; Something 'Different' For Golfers

Scott Murphy, star right-hander for the Redwood High School baseball team, accepted his team's 1-0 loss to San Rafael yesterday with amazing equanimity.

Amazing is the word, for Murphy lost the game in spite of pitching a no-hitter for the Giants. Questioned on his thoughts after the game, the hurler, a junior at Redwood, remarked, "I knew about it (the no-hitter) all the time, but I didn't care. All I wanted was a run—any amount of runs."

Yesterday's contest marked the second time Murphy had thrown hitless ball in the Marin Athletic League this year. In the MAL baseball tournament in which Redwood emerged as champ, Scott held Novato High hitless in a preliminary victory for the Giants.

SAN ANSELMO Businessmen's Golf Tournament, an annual and popular event usually played on local links, has planned something "different and exciting" this year, according to Chairman John Bell in the understatement of the year.

The something "different and exciting" is a golfers tour of Ireland and Scotland. The group will leave June 4 and return June 25. The price is $1,175 per customer. Now THERE'S a greens fee for you!

Plenty of golf, tours and parties included in the package deal, says Bell, who expects considerably fewer entries than the 125 or so who usually turn out for the Hub Ciy tourneys. Bell can be reached for further details at 119 San Francisco Boulevard San Anselmo.

I can just picture it now. A guy picks up his clubs on the morning of June 4, gives his wife a kiss on the cheek and says, "Gonna go play in the San Anselmo Businessmen's golf tourney, honey. See ya' later."

ONE OF Northern California's great winning streaks came to an end last week when the San Rafael High School tennis team was beaten by Redwood.

It marked San Rafael's first tennis setback in the Marin Athletic League since 1960. Bulldog net teams of Coach Fred Hines had run up 33 consecutive league victories until last week.

Coincidentally, Redwood was the last Marin League team to beat S.R. back in 1960.

OUR COLLEGE of Marin athletes never die: some take up bowling. Walt Moreno and Bud Nattress, two of the Kentfield college's former star athletes, were teammaes on the Al's Liquors team of Ignacio that placed fifth in the recent American Bowling Congress tourney's Booster Division. And where else would a liquor-sponsored team place but fifth?

The Van Wormer and Rodrigues quint from San Rafael's Country Club Bowl finished third, giving Marin bowling quite a boost in the Booster Division.

THE BAND accompanying the San Rafael Little League season-opening parade last Saturday was playing a familiar tune. Sounded like "Music For Young Glovers."

SPEAKING OF such things, the Marinwood-Lucas Valley Little League opening ceremonies this Saturday will have a touch of class: Big Jim Lange, the KSFO disc jock (Mr. Show Biz) and announcer for the Tennessee Ernie Ford TV show, will emcee the goings on.

In all, it will be a busy weekend in Marin for Lange. On Sunday he will play in the Italian Golf Carnevale at the Marin Golf and Country Club, bringing with him Tennessee Ernie Ford and Jackie Jensen.

This is one of Marin's most colorful events with all players in costume, preferably but not necessarily of Italian motif.

Last year's best dressed team—the Brothers Nave of Nave Lanes with Mixologist Ray Amonini thrown in to round out the foursome—will be back to defend the title. They'll tee off at 10:21 a.m.

LATE FLASH! Bob Fouts has entered Sunday's Italian dress as a red dog. (If you don't listen to 49er broadcasts, forget it.)

LARRY LACK, the outstanding young coach of San Rafael High's powerful swim team, made a personal inspection of the bottom of rival Drake's pool yesterday. After his champ Bulldogs whipped Drake, they tossed the fully-clothed Lack into the tank.

Marinites Win Weightlifting Championships

With three members walking off with individual championships, Marin's seven-man Mar-Vel Athletic Club won the Santa Clara Valley Open Weightlifting Championship last weekend at San Jose.

The individual titlists for the Marin club were Bryant Hamilton of San Rafael in the 123-pound class, Frank Holton of San Anselmo in 165-pound competition and Carrol Varner of Terra Linda among the 198-pounders.

Leon Center of San Rafael added points with a second place in the 148-pound class and Ron Johnson of Raphael Village placed second in the heavyweight division.

The Marin team will enter the second annual Pacific Coast Amateur Athletic Union teenage meet Saturday in Sacramento.

Golden Gate Winner

ALBANY (AP) — Better Dancing, $7.80, won the top race at Golden Gate Fields yesterday with the favored Jolly Jester third.

Marin Prep Pitches No-Hitter—Loses!

LOOK OUT! HERE COMES THE THUNDERING HERD

Rerwood High's sprinters, shown sweeping a recent race in Marin Athletic League competition en route to the dual meet season championship, will be favored to pick up more honors in league trials this week at San Rafael High School. From left are John Murk, Dave Auerbach, Guy Modica and Bob Piro. The league trials will be held Thursday and Friday at Drake High starting at 3:30 each day. (Independent-Journal photo)

MAJOR LEAGUE ROUNDUP

Dodgers Jolt Colt Star

U. P. INTERNATIONAL

World champions though they are, the Los Angeles Dodgers aren't above belting a good man when he's down.

That good man is Ken Johnson of the Houston Colts, who last Thursday became the first pitcher in major league history to lose a nine-inning no-hitter and who last night turned in another excellent performance only to bow to the Dodgers, 3-1.

The Dodgers, of course, have been having their own troubles with three star pitchers ailing and with various other injuries to important players. So they left their sentiment in the clubhouse and carved out a third straight victory that still leaves them in ninth place in the National League, five games behind the front-running Philadelphia Phillies.

HARD LUCK

But consider Johnson, the 30-year old righthander who has allowed a total of three earned runs and eight hits in two consecutive games—and lost them both! Alongside him, the hard luck Roger Craig of 1962 and 1963 looks like the guy who hit the $132,000 twin double at Roosevelt Raceway.

The Phillies, so young and vibrant that they can't look back on the ill fortune of others, continued their fast early pace with a 4-2 victory over the Cincinnati Reds; the St. Louis Cardinals down the New York Mets, 8-0, and the Milwaukee Braves beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-5, in the other N.L. games.

In the American League, Minnesota topped Cleveland, 9-8, Boston scored a 6-4 11-inning victory over Baltimore, Kansas City defeated Detroit, 5-1, and Los Angeles edged out Washington, 2-1.

Rookie Ritchie Allen had four hits and drove in two runs and pitcher Art Mahaffey hit a key double in his own behalf for the Phillies, who won their eighth game in 10 starts. Mahaffey doubled and scored on Johnny Callison's single to break a 2-2 tie in the seventh and Allen followed with a triple for an icing run. Allen's sixth-inning homer had tied the score for Mahaffey, who won his first game of the season.

Ernie Broglio pitched a five-hitter and didn't permit a Met base-runner to reach third in gaining his second win. Ken Boyer had a homer and two singles and rookie Phil Gagliano, replacing Julian Javier at second base, doubled home two runs in a four-run fifth-inning rally. Met ace Al Jackson suffered his third loss against one victory.

Rookie Jack Smith's four frames of middle-inning relief pitching were rewarded with his first big league victory as the Braves pounded Bob Friend and three successors for 11 hits. Felipe Alou had three hits, Denis Menke had and Joe Torre homered for the Braves.

IN LAS VEGAS

Palmer, Nicklaus T Of C Choices

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, after carding a three-under-par on his first trip around the Tournament of Champions course this year, declared he felt "a little heavy, but ready to play some real golf."

Palmer, a Pennsylvanian, and Ohio's Jack Nicklaus are the gallery's co-favorites for the four-day tournament in which 29 men will be competing for a share of the $65,000 prize money.

A big share of the gallery—dubbed "Arnie's Army"—will be following Palmer as it did yesterday, when professionals joined amateurs to warm up for the main event, which gets under way tomorrow.

It was in yesterday's round that the four-time winner of the Masters Tournament got his 69, which put him in a five-way tie for sixth. The four winning pros, who carded 67s, were Julius Boros, Mason Rudolph, Johnny Pott and Al Geiberger. Bill Casper Jr. was alone at 68.

Palmer, who admits he's 10 pounds overweight at 190, says he has been "just resting and not playing much golf" since winning the Masters in Augusta, Ga., earlier this month.

"Since I quit smoking I picked up a little weight," Palmer said. "I can feel it, but I don't think it will bother me."

Nicklaus and Bob Nichols were the only professionals who did not team up with amateurs in the $7,500 warmup on the Desert Inn Country Club course. Nicklaus arrived here late in the afternoon, visited the driving range and played a few holes before dark to get the feel of the course.

Nichols' arrival was delayed because of his wife's illness, tournament officials said.

Redwood Star Is Tough Luck Guy

By RICK SKINNER

Shades of Ken Johnson! Scott Murphy of Redwood High School pitched a no-hitter against San Rafael yesterday and still lost the blamed thing, 1-0.

The Marin Athletic League contest was in many ways reminiscent of the major league game last Thursday in which Ken Johnson of the Houston Colts lost a no-hit job, 1-0 to Cincinnati.

The Colts gave the Reds a run in the ninth on an error by the second baseman and another by Johnson. The Redwood Giants handed the Bulldogs a tally in the second inning also after an error by the second baseman.

In the fatal frame, Bulldog right fielder Rocky Shone led off with a walk. Then Rod Monti, San Rafael's first sacker, hit a sharp grounder to first . . . and the roof fell in. Jack Baglietto fielded the ball cleanly and threw to second base to get the lead runner. But shortstop Pat Puccinelli arrived at the bag too early, and the umpire later ruled that he had missed the tag at second. Meanwhile, Puccinelli returned the throw to Baglietto, in an attempt to finish the now-abortive double play. Pat's throw got away from the Giant first baseman, and Monti was safe at first while Shone had gone down to third on the error.

COSTLY BOOT

Murphy, understandably rattled, walked Wade Roberts, San Rafael second baseman, to load the bags. After striking out Ken Erdman, Murphy induced Joe Cunningham to ground to second base. Ooops. Giant second baseman Tom Gootherts booted the ball, Shone scored, and Murphy was on his way to defeat, despite his superb performance.

San Rafael hurler, Jim Schmidt also was on the top of his form. The Bulldog ace moundsman gave up only two hits while striking out seven. He issued four bases-on-balls, but didn't allow a runner past second base after the first inning.

In a game he will long remember with mixed emotions, Murphy finished his six-inning stint with eight whiffs and just three passes given to enemy batsmen.

Big Opener For Trout Fishermen

By JERRY HARRELL

SACRAMENTO, (AP) — Thousands of Californians will be making themselves scarce this weekend—gone fishin'.

The trout season opens Saturday for most of the state. Rain or shine, a large part of the 885,000 people who fish for trout are expected to be on the lakes, streams and reservoirs for the opener.

The usual opening-day madness will be heightened by glowing forecasts for several of the new reservoirs, and generally bright prospects statewide.

At many trout waters, the anglers will find bigger crowds than if they'd stayed at home and gone to the supermarket on Saturday morning.

It's not unusual for 10,000 anglers to gather at Mono County's Crowley Lake on opening day, even with frost on the ground or a cold drizzle falling. One opener drew 14,000.

Whiskeytown Reservoir in Shasta County, opening for its first full season with prospects for easy limits and even some trophy-size trout, also is likely to have elbow-to-elbow angling accompanied by tangled lines, frayed tempers and intemperate language.

Crowds also will be the order of the day for Frenchman Reservoir in Plumas County, probably the hottest spot in the state for trout when it opened last year.

Winter catches of rainbows at Trinity Lake, a hot spot in 1962, that cooled some last year, indicate top angling there this spring, if the weather cooperates.

A look at the State Fish and Game Department's forecast indicates how, at least for the average angler, the reservoir is replacing the sylvan trout stream in the hearts of the fishermen. Most of the best spring spots are reservoirs. And the trend will continue as more former trout creeks and rivers are impounded behind dams.

Early anglers get a couple of bonuses this year. Ruth and Pillsbury Lakes in the north coastal area open Saturday instead of on the later north coastal opener.

Opening Saturday morning will be all of the state except Del Norte, Humboldt and portions of Lake and Mendocino counties — opening May 30 — and Southern California, which is open all year.

Most waters below 6,000 feet elevation should be accessible and free of ice, but lakes above that elevation generally are frozen and roads and trails covered with snow.

Trout anglers 16 or older need a $3 fishing license plus two stamps at $1 each, a total of $5. A total of 4,315 people who went fishing without licenses last year were caught, convicted and fined.

The bag and possession limit remains at 10 trout, or 10 pounds and one trout. Fishing hours are from one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset.

Uncle Mike Favors Old Time Stars Over Pampered Players Of Today

CONNOLLY

There is many an old time baseball fan who figures the player of today does not compare to those of yesteryear. They think the modern diamond hero is all puffed out of shape on account of the money he gets, the food he eats, and the praise he receives from the newspapermen.

My uncle Mike is one of those old codgers. He claims no modern ballplayer, jockey, golfer, bowler or football player is worth $50,000 a season. He says ball players are afraid to slide; jockeys take the easy way round, golfers are pampered badly, bowling is a girl's game and football players are glorified sissies, wrapped up in iron suits to protect them from being hurt.

I'll take Johnny Evers of the Chicago Cubs against any single, or any group of ball players in the game today," Uncle Mike was saying.

"With his chin on, Evers hardly weighed 105 pounds but he could lick the whole Chicago Cubs team of today with the Chicago White Sox tossed in for good measure.

"If Evers couldn't do it alone," sez Uncle Mike, "He could call on John McGraw, Ty Cobb, Hughie Jennings, Fred Clarke, Kid Eberfield, Kid Gleason or Rabbit Maranville, and they'd do it for him.

"Maranville," according to Uncle Mike, "was afraid to walk through Kansas because he might be mistaken for a jackrabbit and get his ears shot off."

IT SEEMS unfair for Uncle Mike who insists on carrying the torch for the oldtimers. He never did like Charley Comiskey, the Old Roman who owned the White Sox of 1919. Uncle Mike claims Comiskey never paid the fellows enough to keep the wrinkles out of their tummies.

"Great players like Joe Jackson, Buck Weaver, Chick Gandil and Swede Risberg played for pennies," Uncle Mike maintains. "No wonder they went sour."

Uncle Mike has some good points in his argument for the old timers. He claims they were colorful, much funnier than the new breed of today.

I REMEMBER one day when Red Held was base umpiring and Jack Fournier, a highly exciteable French first baseman, was with the L. A. Angels.

Fournier roughly questioned a call by Held at first base and fired his mitt at Held. It knocked Red's hat off revealing, for the first time a fine bald dome, one of the finest ever seen. Fournier, of course, was kicked out of the game and the fans went home happy. Next day the ball park was packed.

"The modern way of doing things today is very confusing," my Uncle Mike said through his beer mug. "As a perfect illustration, not long ago we go into a cocktail bar in Arizona and we see a big sign reading 'No liquor served to Indians.' As we look down the bar we see three gals and three young sprouts falling off their stools —they could take it but the Indians couldn't!"

EDDIE MULLIGAN, now the president of the California State League, scored the greatest one punch knockout in old Recreation Park when he flattened Bill Kenworthy of the Daks after a close play at third base.

Babe Pinelli, National League retired umpire, and a hustling, fiery player, once clouted Umpire Bill Byron on the whiskers for as clean a knockdown as you'll ever see.

You never see any of those things today in baseball. Those tactics have been legislated out of the sport. A soiled look from a ball player at an umpire today and the player finds himself in the clubhouse on the first bounce.

My Uncle Mike says all he fansy twists and twirls of baseball today have not improved the breed, as the boys around the racetrack say.

Pirates Capitalize On 5 Muffs For Loop Win

Errors made the difference as Drake High School downed Novato, 7-4, in a Marin Athletic League baseball contest yesterday.

In three innings, costly Novato errors kept Drake rallies alive or else allowed runs to score. Hornet fielders committed five skulls during the game, and this, on top of ten Drake safeties, was too much for Novato batters to recoup.

While neither team's hurlers were overpowering, Charles Simontacchi of Drake was the steadiest where is counted, and he teamed with his backstop brother Al for the victory. Pirate coach Bob Fitzhenry seems to have found the winning combination with this pair, as together they have combined for the pitching and hitting which has brought home two of the three Drake MAL wins.

BIG INNING

Big inning in yesterday's game was the Drake fourth. Given two walks and one error, the Pirate bats took advantage of the enemy's generosity by smashing three hits for four big runs. Don Humphrey, the third sacker, stroked the telling blow with his two-run single. The four runs in the sixth, after Terry Tadlock's lead-off homer in the first, gave Drake the margin of victory.

Novato got two runs in the third on three straight hits. Catcher Ron Rowell knocked in one of these with a single, and Jerry Howarth scored from third when Rowell was caught in a rundown between first and second.

Dessert Capable Of Reigning Alone

A dessert light as a breeze, handsome enough to demand a special occasion, is this strawberries and cream pie. It's an alluring choice to climax a banquet of majestic proportion yet capable of reigning alone at a simple coffee hour. Designed for the month of May, it will fit beautifully at a festive bridal shower.

ITS GRAHAM cracker crust is the perfect beginning to a pie that will be especially favored during the warm summer months because it needs no baking. The filling is a combination of canned strawberry pie filling, strawberry-flavored gelatin and ice cream.

The pie filling and ice cream are blended into the gelatin and stirred until the ice cream melts. Food coloring can be used if you are trying to match a very pink tablecloth or party accessories. Otherwise, you'll probably prefer the natural color of the filling. When the filling is slightly chilled, pour it into the crust and return to refrigerator.

TThis pie is a delight to eat with a delicate and rich flavor, and a texture pleasingly cool and smooth to the taste. Add the recipe to your files and try it soon. You'll be happy you did.

STRAWBERRIES AND CREAM PIE

- 2 cups graham cracker crumbs
- ⅓ cup sugar
- ⅔ cup melted butter
- 1 tablespoon water
- 1 3-ounce package strawberry flavored gelatin
- ¾ cup hot water
- 1 No. 2 can (2-½ cups) strawberry pie filling
- 1 pint vanilla ice cream, cut into 6 chunks
- Red food coloring (optional)

Combine cracker crumbs with sugar; mix in butter and water. Pat mixture into a 10-inch pie plate. To make an even layer of crumbs on bottom and sides; place a 9-inch pie plate on top of crumbs and press firmly. Remove 9-inch pie plate. Chill.

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add strawberry pie filling and vanilla ice cream; stir until ice cream melts. Add food coloring. Chill until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from a spoon. Pour into crumb crust and chill until firm. Garnish with whipped cream and berries, if desired.

Yield: 1 10-inch pie.

Bones Protect Meat

You don't need to place the meat on a rack in roasting ribs of beef or loin of pork because the bones hold the meat away from the bottom of the roasting pan.

Lemon Angel Pie An Airy Dessert

With the first blush of spring, our thoughts turn to light, airy desserts.

This Lemon Angel Pie is a special dessert. A frothy combination of whipped cream and gelatine, it's filled and garnished with strawberry halves.

LEMON ANGEL PIE
(Makes one 9-inch pie)

- 1 baked 9-inch pie shell
- 1 envelope (1 tablespoon) plain unflavored gelatine
- ¼ cup cold water
- ½ cup bottled lemon juice
- ¾ cup sugar
- 1½ cups heavy cream, whipped
- 1 10-oz. package strawberry halves, thawed and well-drained

Soften gelatine in cold water. In a small saucepan combine bottled lemon juice and sugar; heat to boiling. Add softened gelatine; stir until dissolved.

Chill gelatine mixture over ice water, stirring occasionally until just syrupy; beat until foamy. Gradually fold gelatine mixture into whipped cream. Mixture should mound when dropped from a spoon; if necessary, chill over ice water. Spoon enough cream mixture into pie shell to cover bottom; arrange strawberry halves over filling, reserving a few halves for garnish. Spoon remaining filling into pie shell; chill in refrigerator about 3 hours or until firm. Garnish with remaining strawberry halves.

Cooked Ham, Mushrooms Are Used For Stuffing

There are other ways to cook chops besides broiling them. If you have thick chops cut with pockets, you can put a savory stuffing in each.

STUFFED VEAL CHOPS WITH VEGETABLES

- 4 veal chops, 1½ inches thick
- ½ cup chopped cooked ham
- 2 tablespoons chopped mushrooms
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 2 tablespoons Parmesan cheese
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 cup sliced carrots
- ¾ cup chopped green pepper
- 1 cup chopped celery
- ½ cup chopped onion
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon oregano
- ¼ teaspoon basil
- 1 can (15½ ounces) spaghetti sauce with mushrooms (tomato base)

Have a deep pocket cut in each chop. Mix together the ham and mushrooms. Stuff into pockets of chops. Push pocket openings closed. Mix flour and cheese and coat stuffed chops with the mixture. Melt butter in a skillet; add chops and brown on each side. Put the chopped vegetables in a baking dish (8 or 9 inches square and 2 inches deep). Put the chops on top of the vegetables. Sprinkle chops with salt, oregano and basil. Pour the spaghetti sauce around the chops. Cover and bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 1 hour. Makes 4 servings.

BRIDE ASKS:

How Do I Cook Frogs' Legs?

I've just been married a few months and my husband is fascinated by all kinds of food. Yesterday, as part of my birthday present, he brought me a package of frozen frogs' legs. They (the legs) are now in the freezer. What shall I do?
—JEANNINE

COOK THE frogs' legs, by all means. You haven't been married long enough to tell your husband to cook them himself.

Try not to mind your groom's epicurean leanings. You're bound to have an interesting life.

Just be glad your husband didn't catch the frogs himself. If he had, they might have started moving around in the pan. This does not mean that the frog has an after-life, only that in freshly-caught frogs' legs the muscles may go on contracting during skinning and cooking. Should your husband ever decide to catch his own frogs, chill the legs before cooking and you won't have to face a single twitch.

Frogs' legs are absolutely delicious, especially when cooked the following way. If you try this recipe your husband will undoubtedly say you are a marvelous cook and on your next birthday bring you home a turtle to cook. Compared to turtle soup, frogs' legs—believe me—are child's play.

SAUTEED FROGS' LEGS IN LEMON BUTTER

- 8 large or 16 small to medium frogs' legs.
- Salt and pepper
- ½ cup flour
- 7 tablespoons butter
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon minced onion
- Rosemary
- 1 lemon, quartered

If frogs' legs are frozen, thaw before using. Wash and dry the legs and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Coat evenly with flour. Heat 4 tablespoons of the butter in a large skillet; add frogs' legs and saute gently, 5 to 6 minutes on each side. In a small skillet, melt the remaining 3 tablespoons of butter and stir in the lemon rind, lemon juice, onion and a pinch of rosemary; spoon over the frogs' legs. Cover skillet; simmer 6 to 8 minutes or until frogs' legs are tender. Serve at once with lemon quarters.

CLASSIFYING FROGS' LEGS

Frogs' legs (fresh or frozen) are sold in fish markets. If you look up recipes for the legs in cook books, you'll find them under fish or seafood because there is no section for amphibians. In his book "James Beard's Fish Cookery," Jim suggests soaking frogs' legs in milk before cooking them; you might like to try his way. (AP)

Ladies Lack Protein

A study made by food scientists at several midwest agricultural experiment stations shows that after 40 years of age the average woman consumes less than the daily needed amount of protein. Reporting on the study, the U.S. Department of Agriculture said women between 40 and 59 years had diets nine per cent below par in protein; women 60 to 69, 18 per cent; and those 70 to 79, about 12 per cent short.

Way Fibers Go

When you are preparing a stuffed flank steak, roll the meat up the way the fibers go; then in slicing before serving, you'll be able to cut across the fibers.

Start 'Homework' Now To Cast Informed Vote June 2

The June 2 primary election is little more than a month away.

Campaigning "for keeps" will proceed without let-up from now until then.

And on the night before election, in this space, the I-J will probably remind all to "get out and vote tomorrow."

We will unquestionably advocate an "informed" vote.

But it will then be too late to inform oneself.

Permit us to make that "pitch" here today.

Inform yourself.

Campaigning provides the opportunity.

Many tend to scoff at political speeches.

But if you want to cast an informed vote next June 2, it is necessary to familiarize yourself with the stands of the candidates, to listen to a bit of campaign oratory. Republicans face an important choice between Conservative Senator Goldwater and Moderate-Progressive Governor Rockefeller.

Democrats face a tough choice between the two contenders for U.S. Senator Clair Engle's job, Alan Cranston and Pierre Salinger.

If these and other contests are to be decided on facts and reason (instead of "by guess and by golly"), it is time now for voters to start doing "homework" seriously.

Opportunity For Youth In Art Show

A community art show to give youth a chance to express themselves is an excellent idea.

Such a show is planned for June 14 in Novato by a group called The Novato Society of Advanced Art. Title of the exhibit is' "What I see when I think of my country "

Rules call for good taste, skill, readability between artist and viewer, etc. In addition, the Society lays out some of its aims in a Statement of Agreement for members of the group. Among definitions given by the Society is that "free expressionism craves rudeness and scorns skill . . . It has no place whatsoever in this art group."

We support projects that give youth a public platform for expression. Expression will no doubt range from the abstract to stark realism.

Regardless of a sponsoring group's views on art, we hope that ground rules on any public display will not be so restrictive that a stifling, rather than an expression, of youthful ideas will result.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Easy Time Seen For McCarthy, Bagley—But Not Clausen

TAKESHITA

OF THE PARTISAN office holders running for re-election to the State Legislature and to Congress, Congressman Don Clausen (R-Crescent City) appears to have the toughest fight on his hands, if registration figures are any indication.

Clausen is a Republican, but his six-county district (including Marin) has registered Democrats outnumbering registered Republicans by about 16,000 voters. If everyone voted along straight party lines, Clausen would lose in November to the Democratic nominee (either George McCabe or Merle Orchard).

But that's not the way it actually works. Other variables enter into it—like personality, turnout on election day, Clausen's incumbency, and the voters' estimate of how Clausen is doing in Washington. Since these factors cannot be gauged accurately, all we can do at this point is to look at the non-variables.

REGISTRATION figures remain relatively constant. As of January this year, this was the registration picture:

In Clausen's First District, Sonoma, Napa, Mendocino, Humboldt and Del Norte are heavily Democratic. Marin is the only exception, with 34,500 Republicans as against 29,800 Democrats. But Marin's Republican edge is more than offset by the five other counties. Total count is 116,101 Democrats vs. 100,217 Republicans.

That registration handicap will have to be overcome by Clausen's personality and by what he has done in Congress for his constituents.

ON THE BASIS of registration figures alone, State Sen. Jack McCarthy (R-San Rafael) should be a shoo-in. His district (the 13th) is Marin County alone. Thus, he has a Republican voter edge of 5,000 even before he starts the race. This, coupled with his long incumbency, gives him a distinct edge.

Anything can happen between now and November, but Democrat Vera Schultz has a long way to go if she is to catch up.

For Assemblyman Bill Bagley (R-San Rafael), it's a little different story. If he represented only Marin, he would have the same advantage as McCarthy. But Bagley represents the Seventh District, both Marin and Sonoma. The big Republican margin in Marin is offset by the big Democratic edge in Sonoma, making the total registration a toss-up.

AS OF JANUARY, the Democratic registration total for the two counties was 64,238, as against 63,940 for the Republicans.

The registration factor thus gives Assemblyman Bagley and Democrat James E. Pockrus of Rohnert Park an even start.

Bagley's incumbency gives him the edge, and the rest is up to the vote-drawing power of the two men. Pockrus, who teaches school in Sebastopol, has a lot of catching up to do to match the personal magnetism of Bagley and his wide public exposure both through his legislative work and in appearances at home.

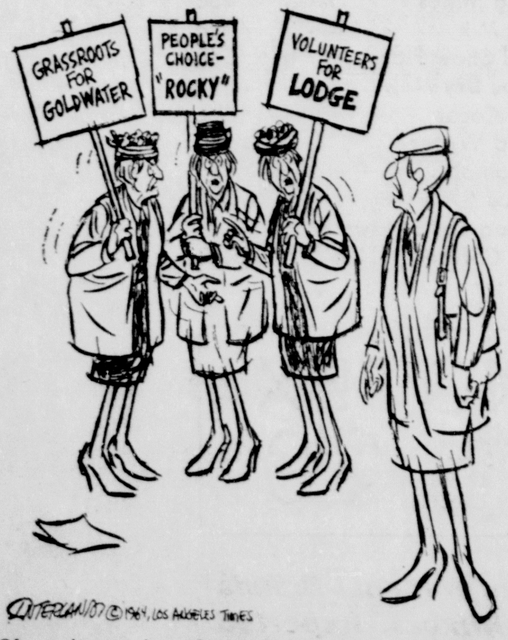
And so, at this point, it looks like smooth sailing for McCarthy and Bagley, but rougher going for Clausen.

Businessman Actually Bleeds For Cause

RICHMOND, Ky. (AP)—"I try to give each time the Bloodmobile visits here . . . but I miss sometimes," explained Richmond businessman Robert Luxon.

His latest time as a blood donor was his 56th. That adds up to seven gallons.

THE CYNIC'S CORNER By Interlandi



"Oh, quit arguing about the primaries. You know it'll be decided at the convention by the political pros!"

Busy Mother Tops In College Grades

TYLER, Texas (AP) — Being a wife, mother of two small children and a college student keeps Mrs. Frank Brown busy, but she managed to earn straight A's in her first semester at Tyler Junior College despite her full schedule.

The 22-year-old honor student attends school in the daytime while her husband, who works at night, takes care of Chrissi Lynn, 4½, and David, 1. He holds an associate of engineering degree from Tyler and when Mrs. Brown receives her associate of arts degree here, they plan to move to Houston, where both will attend the University of Houston.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Another Query About Those Lights

Editor, Independent-Journal:

On many occasions over the past several months, I have driven past the new Civic Center building between 7:30 and 8:30 p.m. and, in each instance, have noticed that the building is ablaze with lights. It appears that every light in the building is burning.

Is there a reasonable explanation for this or is it just another example of the attitude most of our public officials have, which is, "spare no expense and to Hell with the taxpayers"?

DONALD R. WILSON
Kentfield

(The explanation given previously by county authorities and reported previously in the Independent-Journal is that some banks of lights — but not all — are burned in the evenings while maintenance crews perform their daily chores.—Editor)

Livermore Disagrees With Livermore

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I wanted to comment on a letter written to you by Norman Livermore Jr., on April 17, in which he indicated that, although he regretted it, he saw little hope for saving the Prairie Creek State Redwood Park from the intrusion of a freeway, because of the high cost of routing the freeway around this park. He and I have shared a lifelong interest in wilderness and conservation matters, but on this question we have an honest and friendly disagreement.

His letter answered a letter written to you by Mr. Francois Leydet, one of the authors of "The Last Redwoods," in which Mr. Leydet had said that the remaining virgin redwoods would be cut by 1980 at the present rate of cutting and that it would cost only a "moderate" amount to build the freeway around Prairie Creek Park. Norm, in answering, stated that county assessors have estimated a 35-year life for the remaining virgin redwoods and that some lumber companies would have enough virgin redwoods to last for 50 years, and he questioned whether the alleged cost of six million dollars, which the Division of Highways estimates will be required to route the freeway around the Prairie Creek Park, is "moderate."

Certainly, the question of the probable life of the remaining virgin redwoods is a conjectural matter as to which I must defer to Norm's experience in the forestry field and to Mr. Leydet's research, but I am informed that a 1960 report by the United States Forest Service estimated that these trees will have disappeared by 1980, if the present rate of cutting continues.

However, I do wish to differ with Norm's reluctant view that Prairie Creek Park probably cannot be saved from the freeway. I believe he was over-pessimistic, and understandably so, because he had before him only the single item of the estimate by the Division of Highways of the cost of saving this park and was accordingly not able to relate this estimate to the state-wide highway program as a whole.

According to the California Highways and Public Works Magazine, the "Official Journal of the Division of Highways," Vol. 42 (1963), the master plan enacted in 1959 calls for the construction of 12,414 miles of freeway by 1980 at a cost of ten billion dollars. At page 70, it is stated that $577,212,000 has been budgeted by the California Highway Commission for state highway construction purposes for the fiscal year 1964-65 alone. The Division of Beaches and Parks has stated that the bypassing of all parks, where this is necessary to preserve park values, would add not more than 15, and probably only 10, miles to the length of this freeway system. Based up the above-mentioned 20-year goal, this constitutes only one-tenth of one per cent of the mileage of this system and only a fraction of its cost.

Viewed in this light, Mr. Leydet's statement that the several million dollars allegedly involved in routing the freeway around Prairie Creek Park is "moderate" is placed in its true perspective.

As to Norm's further thought that population pressures and the increasing affluence of our mobile society are inevitably demanding new and larger roads, I would say that the users of these roads must, as a part of the cost of such use, bear the expense involved in saving our parks for those who use them and enjoy the values they preserve. Is it not a further answer that these parks have been given in most part as memorials to the dead of World War II or to deceased relatives or friends, and that the State is bound by a moral, if not a legal, covenant with the donors that these quiet sanctuaries will not be disturbed by the drone and roar of trucks and buses travelling at high speeds or by the wide, straight swath of a bisecting freeway?

Cannot a society which can spend billions to put an astronaut on the moon and on armaments, and a State which can spend 10 billion dollars on a state highway program and $4,300,000 in constructing a highway interchange north of Hamilton Field for the greater convenience and safety of the motoring public, spend a small fraction of its State highway funds and its federal highway subsidy to honor its obligations to these donors and to preserve these world-famous parks?

Probably the only properties in the State that are presently completely safe from the recently enlarged and almost unlimited power of the Division of Highways are cemeteries. These redwood groves should be considered to be in the same category. They should be preserved as eloquent statements to the world that, although we are proud of our fine highways, the citizens of California also place a high value on making good our commitments to the thousands of donors from all over the world who have given to these parks and that we are determined to protect for future generations the priceless and unique heritage of these trees.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

IN "THE LAST CAPRICE," Robert Menchin tells about some extraordinary provisions that have turned up in wills. A French millionaire, for example, left a substantial legacy to a woman who had refused to marry him 20 years before. He explained in his will that the bequest was an expression of gratitude for "a serene bachelor life and independence and freedom." The great German poet, Heinrich Heine, willed that his widow inherit his entire estate — provided that she promptly remarry "because then there will be at least one man to regret my death." And a cynical attorney left every penny he possessed to the local insane asylum, with the explanation, "I obtained this money out of those who pass their lives in litigation; in bequeathing it for the use of lunatics, I only make restitution."

A PHENOMENAL Columbia student has memorized 11,000 telephone numbers. Unfortunately, he cannot recall the names that go with them.

TWO INDIANS were having their first look at water skiing. Asked one, "Why boat go so fast?" Answered the other, "Lunatic on string chase 'em."

Poll Shows Young Republicans Not Extremists But Middle-Of-Road

WASHINGTON — One of the great political myths in the United States is that youthful voters are aligning themselves in large blocs on the extremists wings of the Republican and Democratic parties.

This myth has obviously been fed by the actions of the Young Democrats and the Young Republicans who have lately been getting hold of much of their party organizations in California.

The evidence is that in the nation as a whole voters in the youngest age bracket stand overwhelmingly in the political center of both parties.

THE CLEAREST proof of this fact is the Gallup Poll which shows:

That voters from 21 to 29 years old give President Lyndon B. Johnson a better than 2-1 lead over the more conservative Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

That voters from 21 to 29 years old predominantly make Lodge their first choice for the Republican presidential nomination.

That even their second choice does not go to the more conservative side of the party but rather to Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

WHERE, THEN, is the Republican center and who are its more authentic spokesmen?

Is it, for example, accurate for the supporters of Sen. Barry Goldwater to claim that California's senior senator, Thomas H. Kuchel, a Rockefeller backer, is a "Republican extremist" and "out of the mainstream of the whole party?"

During the whole eight-year span of President Dwight D. Eisenhower's administration, Kuchel supported 81 per cent of President Eisenhower's policies when they came before the Senate for approval; Senator Goldwater, 59 per cent.

On the 25 major policy positions in the 1960 Republican national platform, unanimously adopted by delegates from all over the country, Kuchel supported party policy completely.

Barry Goldwater opposed all 25.

SOME MAJOR measures which were supported decisively by Senate Republicans, opposed by only a small minority, were: the United Nations loan, the Arms Control Agency, the nuclear test ban (first advanced by Eisenhower), the first civil rights bill in 80 years, the Kerr-Mills medical care bill favored by Republicans 31 to 1.

As to the current civil rights bill, four-fifths of all the Republicans in the House voted for all of the provisions of the bill now being debated in the Senate.

Obviously, there can be wide and honest differences over what Republican policy ought to be, but I see no better way of defining actual Republican policy than to look at the body of measures supported by a Republican president, advocated by the last Republican national platform, and voted by the great majority of Republican congressmen.

Republicans who support these policies can hardly be "out of the mainstream of the party."

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Young Texan Takes Over Johnson Staff

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — William Moyers, 30-year-old ordained Baptist minister, is emerging as the dominant figure on President Lyndon B. Johnson's staff.

With the same forcefulness that his boss constantly proclaims, Moyers has commandeered the office previously occupied by Theodore Sorensen, No. 1 aide of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Moyers has taken over the direction of the entire White House staff and staffing of key positions in other government agencies.

By agreement with Kenneth O'Donnell, former Kennedy aide now serving as Johnson's appointment secretary, Moyers has the final say on all visitors' appointments.

A SLENDER TEXAN, Moyers is using the Peace Corps, where he was deputy director, to recruit staff members for the White House and the Democratic National Committee.

Despite the violent objections of such trusted Johnson aides as Special Assistant Walter Jenkins and Clifton Carter, the president's top political adviser, Moyers has brought back into the White House Richard Goodwin, the former Latin American "expert" who favors normalizing U.S. relations with Fidel Castro.

Goodwin, whose Latin American capers with pro-Castro politicians got him quietly shifted to the Peace Corps under the late President Kennedy, is back at his old stomping grounds, writing speeches and handling special assignments from Moyers.

MOYERS ALSO has succeeded in installing Lloyd Wright, another Peace Corps official and staunch supporter of Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy, as head of the Democratic National Committee's publicity department.

Moyers is waging a backstage battle to expand this mushrooming empire. He is trying to add to the White House staff Wilson D. McCarthy, congressional relations officer of the Peace Corps.

While Carter and Jenkins have temporarily blocked McCarthy's transfer, Moyers has given his private White House pass to McCarthy, who is serving as his private "messenger" to Kennedy.

WHEN WHITE HOUSE visitors ask O'Donnell whether Kennedy would accept the vice presidency with Johnson, he replies: "I can't believe any Democrat would turn down the president, if asked."

The chief usher has complained to the first lady that so many activities are now going on in the White House that the staff does not have time to keep the president's home in order.

The Country Parson

"I think I learned to understand people better by associating with them than by studying about them."

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Nearly a million dollars worth of expansion and new equipment, to include a dial system and new building for the Novato telephone exchange, was announced by Los Gatos Telephone Co.

20 YEARS AGO

Marin County's crippled and blind were entitled to the $43,550 proceeds from the sale of the 263-acre Mathias Joseph Pedrotti ranch, which the federal government condemned in 1942 to extend Hamilton Field. Federal Judge Michael J. Roche ruled in San Francisco. He thus ruled against Pedrotti's heirs, who contended the proceeds should go to them since the condemnation broke the rancher's will.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By FRED WYATT

Last Of Tramp Reporters? Could Be As Move Is Made To Berkeley Paper

"FRED IS THE LAST of the tramp reporters," said assistant managing editor Berne Jacobsen of the Seattle Post - Intelligencer last November, introducing me to political editor Stub Nelson. I denied this, saying I had served the I-J nearly three years and settled down. But maybe he tagged me right.

I'm taking off again, this time for Berkeley, to start a new daily reporting stint May 4. As I told I-J Editor Jack Craemer, it grieves me to give notice here, where I'd been happiest as a reporter of any time since my years on the University of Washington Daily.

The timing of my indefinite leave, as I regard it, fouls up many things. I was due for vacation in June. I'd planned to use the New York World's Fair as an excuse to see former working mates in the big city. And I never did a column I'd planned on Dr. John C. Siemens, wanted by numerous Second District residents (now backing Jess J. France Jr.) as candidate to unseat Supervisor William D. Fusselman.

SIEMENS, serene chairman of Tamalpais High School District board, is not only administrator of Ross General Hospital. He also runs Novato General Hospital under the title of general supervisor. Fellow physicians rate Siemens as a first-rate businessman as well as top-flight doctor.

Tipsters insist he will soar to higher political levels, but only after seeing Tam District through to publicly voted total unification and serving as trustee the first four years if elected to the new board.

I also had planned to submit an anniversary tribute to the memory of a man wholly dedicated to the entire county good, Supervisor Walter R. Castro, whose death July 16, 1963, crushed all who had known him. Castro was my original and best news source in Marin politics. He gave his good will bluntly the day I met him, June 6, 1961, when he dissented from the 4-1 vote for the Strawberry Point Towers. "Call me any time," he said.

When I covered board meetings later, he and others always would ask me to lunch with them "so we won't be violating the Brown Act."

ON DEC. 5, 1961, date of the election to recall Supervisor J. Walter Blair, I lunched with Castro and County Administrator Alan Bruce. "How will it come out?" asked Castro. I had covered progress of the campaign. "It's going to win," I said.

That night KTIM manager Hugh Turner had me join him at the FM mike to help broadcast the returns, which added up to the first successful supervisorial recall election in the history of the state recall ordinance. Later that week Castro told me: "I'll always believe what you tell me and I'll always tell you anything you want to know."

In late 1962, when none could foresee his sudden departure, Castro and I went to lunch, in my Triumph TR-3 roadster. Castro, a big man physically as in all other ways, gracefully got in, observing, "These are good little cars, aren't they?"

A MYRIAD other memories: of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin J. McClain; Supervisor Peter H. Behr, who brightened Castro's last months; planner Mary Summers; Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos and men; College of Marin trustees Elizabeth M. Deedy, Kent O. Seymour; Larkspur and Corte Madera leaders; Vera Schultz; many others. So long now. With regrets, and love.

With Feeling Against Stall-Ins, You Better Not Get Stalled On Road

WASHINGTON — Not only has the stall-in caper of militant civil rights demonstrators caused ill-feeling at the New York World's Fair, but the repercussions have spread to the rest of the country.

Anyone who runs out of gas now, on a major highway, is an immediate suspect.

Two days after the World's Fair stall-ins a friend of ours ran out of gas on a highway outside of Washington. He flagged down another car and said:

"I'm sorry to bother you, but I just ran out of gas."

"Oh, you're one of those guys," the driver said menacingly.

"No, you don't understand. My wife forgot to fill up the gas tank yesterday."

"She's one, too, huh? I ought to punch you right in the nose."

SEVERAL CARS stopped to see what was going on. Our friend got nervous as the crowd enlarged and cars honked their horns.

"If someone would just help me push it over on the grass, I'd be most grateful," our friend said.

"Sure," said someone, "and then you'll push it out on the highway again."

"Has anyone got a cattle prod?" a voice yelled.

From the crowd he could hear people saying to one another, "What happened?"

"That guy waving his arms says he's going to turn on all the tap water in Washington to protest civil rights."

FINALLY A policeman came along and our friend explained that he was out of gas.

"Look, just call a tow car and take the car away," our friend said.

"You're not going to get off that easy," the cop said. "Okay," he said to the crowd, "break it up. Everybody gets a fair trial—even a stall-in."

They towed our friend's car away and finally let him go. When he got home he could barely speak to his wife.

"Where have you been?" she wanted to know.

"You forgot to fill the tank yesterday," he said bitterly, "and I've just been made an honorary Black Muslim."

Code Arrives

Granville L. Beedle, Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce secretary - manager, said today that he has received a third shipment of the California Vehicle Code Summary from Sacramento and that persons wishing a free copy may ask for it at the chamber office at 85 Throckmorton Avenue. He said he has distributed 125 copies since March 15.

Sporty, Fastbacked Autos Aimed At Youthful Market

By CHARLES C. CAIN

DETROIT (AP) — High-powered, sports-car-styled models aimed at capturing the so-called youth market highlight the auto industry's spring new car presentations.

Three major manufacturers have jumped into this heretofore custom manufacturing area with new sporty, fastbacked cars.

The latest to be previewed, the Ford Motor Co. Mustang, was introduced amid the glamor of the New York World's fair.

The Mustang, a 108-inch wheelbase model, comes with a 170 horsepower standard six engine. Available are three optional V-8 engines with up to 271 horsepower.

Carrying out demands for safety as well as stepped up horsepower, the Mustang like American Motor Corp.'s new Typhoon series and Plymouth's Barracuda sports model, come equipped with safety belts unless the buyer specifically asks that this equipment not be installed.

The Barracuda, like the Mustang is pitched for the youth market.

The Typhoon has a six cylinder, 232-cubic inch, 145-horsepower engine—rated the largest displacement six in the U.S. market.

American Motors says the car and engine represents a 33-million-dollar investment.

General Motors, which grabbed off 54 per cent of the U.S. auto sales in the record first quarter of 1964, thus far has made no moves to counter the new sport entries.

Marin automobile dealers this week are observing their "Showroom Auto Show" in which sports and mid-year models have been placed on display. Demonstration rides in the latest cars are being featured, and special trade-in allowances are being offered. All 24 new car dealers in the county are participating.

With production and sales rolling along at record rates, it is difficult to find anyone in the auto industry to talk about what the industry plans in its 1965 models.

Practically everyone in the auto business, from top bosses down to dealers, figures that premature talk about 1965 autos might result in some potential buyers of 1964 autos putting off their purchase.

It is safe to say, however, that the 1965 models will be the year of the big change.

American Motors, for example, reportedly will make drastic changes in its Ambassador and Classic lines. The rumor is that American Motors will turn out 1965 Ambassador and Classic lines which will be distinctive from each other.

Plymouth will have a 119-inch wheelbase, the same as the Dodge, and this would mean that Chrysler would be in better position to interchange the two cars on its production lines, as General Motors now does with its Buick - Oldsmobile - Pontiac plants.

In a nutshell, the auto industry has had great success this year in getting customers to open their pocketbooks and some guesses are that close to eight million cars will be sold this year.

Detroit has bet millions of dollars in tooling, dies, engineering and styling changes on its 1965 models. Most observers feel that the industry, which keeps an ever closer ear to public opinion, is readying 1965 models which will do even better in the market place.

Students Told Not To Dispair When College Says No

U. S. Chamber Head Says There Are Many Good, Small Schools

By EDWARD W. O'BRIEN
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — For many high school seniors, these lovely spring days are he time of deep despair. They are the unlucky ones who are receiving rejection notices from the admissions officers of the colleges they wanted to enter.

This year, more youngsters than ever competed for places in the small number of elite colleges and universities across the country. Big education—these few dozen centers of academic money, prestige, and prowess—became more dominant. The 2,000 other institutions of higher learning are sharing what is left.

Edwin P. Neilan, the banker-president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, fears this trend, for he sees in it immense peril to the nation's smaller colleges and its liberal arts tradition.

To the students of Olivet College (enrollment: 561) in Michigan, he said recently:

"The atmosphere to be found on this campus and hundreds of similar campuses around the country is distinctly different from that to be found in larger institutions where a factory-like philosophy and a federally funded intrastructure has grown up behind the ivy . . .

"The increasing functionalism of our larger universities has all but ignored the liberal arts tradition. Only in the smaller colleges can we hope to preserve the ideals and aspirations of that tradition today."

Neilan, a critic of big government, put much responsibility for the change in higher education on government. Starting in World War II he recalled, the government has put great pressure, much of it justifiable, on universities to produce scientists and technicians. In the same period there has also come "the surge of the middle-class tide," as he called it—the newly affluent parents who wanted only "the best" for their children, and equated the big-name universities with quality.

The foundations came along too at this time, pouring out their money to the better-known schools, which also learned to employ professional fund-raising firms to solicit donations of money which might otherwise have gone to smaller and equally deserving schools.

Today, Neilan reports, two billion dollars a year in federal funds is finding its way to colleges and universities. By the latest estimate, some 93 per cent goes to 100 institutions, all but a few of them in the prestige category.

In 1960, 82 per cent of Massachusetts Institute of Technology's operating and capital expenditures were financed out of federal research funds. At Princeton, it was 75 per cent. Other universities, including some state and some church-related schools, were also astonishingly high.

The first danger is in the share of control which inevitably accompanies government financing. The next was described by Neilan in this way:

"This pattern draws an abnormal proportion of students into science and engineering and then concentrates them in the institutions in which federal funds are concentrated. This, in turn, channels the more highly qualified graduate students into the research programs and leaves the less qualified to carry on the teaching duties, weakening and diluting the entire structure of the educational process."

Harold Orlans of the Brookings Institute recently examined the federal government's frenetic emphasis on scientific research and concluded that if it has brought "enormous benefits," it has also contributed to "a devaluation of undergraduate teaching and to an expansion of mediocre research."

Orlans urges "some reorientation of expenditures toward state universities, liberal arts colleges, science education, and the humanities," and a reaffirmation of "quality" rather than "mere competence." Neilan is asking business to contribute to smaller colleges.

And to those unhappy high school seniors who feel destined for nothing more exciting than Podunk U this could be said:

Cheer up, you may be pleasantly surprised. Perhaps Podunk U will do much for you, and you might even be able to do much for it.

Never Underrate Wyoming Barkeep

BUFFALO, Wyo. (AP)—Marvin Jones, co-owner of a Buffalo bar, has a valuable collection of silver dollars—a complete set of every cartwheel minted, except for an 1895 dollar.

He values it at more than $5,000.

Jones kept the collection in the safe at his bar, but the recent publicity over the silver dollar shortage prompted him to take his collection home for examination one weekend.

A couple nights later, burglars broke into the tavern, wheeled away the safe and fled with $400 in cash and $400 to $500 in checks. Jones' silver dollar collection was safe at home.

Jet Car's Tires Have No Tread

AKRON, Ohio (UPI) — The world's fastest tires — those used on "Spirit of America" when it broke the World Land Speed Record last summer — had no tread rubber at all.

Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. engineers said no tread was used in order to reduce heat and centrifugal force problems, so the rubber-coated fabric carcass could carry Craig Breedlove and the three-tone jet car the distance needed to set his record of 407.45 mph.

Who Spit?

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—During a church service a priest walked down an aisle sprinkling holy water on worshipers.

A drop fell on the neck of a small boy, who quickly stood up and indignantly asked:

"Awright, who spit?"

Unique Program Benefits Students

COLUMBUS, Miss. (AP)—Both teachers and students benefit from a unique training program being carried on a Mississippi State College for Women.

Home economics majors at the school, who plan to enter adult education work, are getting practice by teaching welfare recipients of Lowndes County to improve their standard of living.

Included in the course are classes in making clothing from inexpensive materials and methods of creating tastier and more varied dishes from commodities alloted by government agencies.

Spring Cleaning Profitable For Boy

BEDFORD, Mass. (AP)—While cleaning his attic recently Waldo Newcomer came upon a valuable "antique," a 12-year-old unused American Airlines ticket. He wrote Murt Bush, manager of passenger service in Boston, to determine if he were entitled to a refund.

Although the validity of the line's tickets is normally one year from date of issuance, an exception was made in this case. Newcomer got a refund on the $11.39 ticket, minus $1.49 U.S. tax, not refundable on an item over three years old.

Folks In Happy Called Jubilant

HAPPY, Texas (UPI) — Folks in Happy are more than just happy over a new 750-foot well that gives promise of ending the town's annual summer water shortage. They are jubilant.

A six-inch stream of water from the new well has farmers as well as town dwellers elated because it opens up new possibilities for farms with a steadily dwindling supply of irrigation water from the shallower depths. The new well was drilled after Happy's lone city water well began to fail.

Dogs Have Problem Of Cholesteral Too

By DELOS SMITH

NEW YORK (UPI)—Some affluent dogs like some affluent people have high blood levels of cholesterol. This new scientific finding is all the more surprising because it was unexpected.

Science had believed the liver of a healthy dog was wholly successful in disposing of excessive cholesterol in its diet. But this belief, which now seems to be a mistaken one, was based on studies on poor dogs.

Notoriously the human liver is only partially successful. Excessive cholesterol boosts the blood level of the fatty stuff and when enough is deposited in the linings of arteries, it hardens them.

A scientific team analyzed blood samples from 160 dogs which were considered affluent because their owners were. As beloved pets they were assumed to share in the high fat diet of most Americans who can afford it and that has been blamed for their prematurely hardened arteries.

The scientists also took blood samples from 156 relatively poor dogs — laboratory dogs, that is. They are confined in cages and runs and get neither the constant affection nor the choice scraps from the table that pet dogs get.

These particular poor dogs subsisted on a nutritionally sound diet from the scientific viewpoint, but it contained meat only once or twice a week and there were no other high-cholesterol foods in it. The scientists pointed out that its total cholesterol content was very low.

The pet dogs had a wide range of blood cholesterol levels from the low one which science had associated with the dog, to very high ones. The laboratory dogs had a narrow range, oll on the low side. The mean pet-dog level was three-fourths higher than the mean of poor-dog levels.

To the scientists there was not much doubt that the relatively high cholesterol levels of the pets was due to their having become accustomed to "human foods — meat, milk, eggs and products thereof." On the mean, their cholesterol levels were comparable to those of people. Nevertheless, the dogs probably got less cholesterol-rich foods than their masters.

"This does not necessarily indicate that the dog is more sensitive than man to dietary cholesterol," the scientists said in their report to a technical organ of the American Medical Assn. They pointed to recent evidence that in people blood cholesterol levels may reach the maximum with relatively little dietary cholesterol.

The scientists also considered the other obvious differences between pet dogs and laboratory dogs—in addition to eating habits. Laboratory dogs are inactive compared to pets, and many of them were "accustomed in a not-far-distant past to freedom and personal attention comparable to that of the pet dogs."

All that would add up to stress. But "the usual effects of inactivity and of stress are commonly related to an elevation of cholesterol," they said. On a basis of stress and inactivity alone they would have expected the laboratory dogs to have the highest cholesterol levels. Their low levels "seem to have occurred in spite of stress and inactivity rather than because of them."

The studies were made at Northwestern University Medical School and Evanston, Ill., Hospital. The scientists were Irwin Schiller and Doctors Nevin E. Berglund, J. R. Terry, Ronald Reichlin, Richard E. Trueblood and George E. Cox.

Sightless Computer Whiz Is Opening Doors For Blind

By CHARLES SCHAEFFER
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON—The blind can lead the blind.

This is being proved by a 17-year-old sightless computer whiz whose demonstrated skill may help throw open career doors mostly shut to the blind.

The youth, Michael L. Lichstein, is a Cincinnati High School senior, who has devised a way to make computers print in Braille. His success, along with that of a few other blind computer operators, has prompted creation of a national training and placement committee.

The Assn. for Computer Machinery established the program hoping not only to aid the talented blind. But to ease the shortage of trained experts who give computers their orders. "We believe we will find that the blind play a unique role in this field," said Dr. Theodor Sterling, director of the University of Cincinnati Medical Computing Center.

His protege, Michael, went blind at the age of nine after suffering optical-nerve cancer and sight-destroying glaucoma. Yet the summa cum laude student mastered high school with a 3.7 average and found time to invent working computer techniques for himself and other blind programmers.

He modified the computer's answer system to print copy in braille. Thus, a blind person turns over the sheet and reads the raised symbols with his fingertips. He has devised a card-reader that can interpret for him punched cards going into the machine.

What about reading the blinking lights of a computer? No real problem, Michael told the computer industry conference here. He simply holds a scanner over the lights which triggers a buzz when they are on.

"A blind person may be slightly slower in reading lights," the youth said, "but we believe this is made up by fewer mistakes."

There are about 20 blind programmers among the nation's operators of 17,000 computers. Mike's efforts may swell this number and lessen the need for go-betweens who can see.

BEAUTY TIPS FROM ME TO YOU

By Dorothy Chapman

In this column I want to discuss with you the overall picture you project of yourself. True, details are important. It is essential that your hair, hands, face, figure and skin all receive proper attention. But these must all be skillfully integrated; they must strive for a totality of effect. You must be an all-around attractive you. And there is no better way to achieve this than through an honest analysis of yourself. Stand before the mirror and take a long, thorough look at the real you, the fundamental you. And from this honest appraisal you will gain knowledge, and knowledge is power. You will then know your defects and assets and be able to take necessary action. A lovely figure is of utmost importance.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, April 29, the 120th day of 1964 with 246 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last quarter. The morning star is Saturn. The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1862, New Orleans, gateway to the Mississippi River and once a stronghold of the Confederacy, fell to Union forces.

In 1913, Gideon Sundback of Hoboken, N.J., was granted a patent for the "zipper."

In 1945, the bodies of Italian Dictator Mussolini and his companions, executed by partisans the day before, were hung in a public square in Milan.

In 1945, American soldiers liberated 32,000 Nazi prisoners at Dachau, the oldest of the Nazi concentration camps.

A thought for the day — English poet Alfred Tennyson once said: "In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Lightface type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

New Bridge Book Is Very Thorough In Its Approach

"If possible," writes Ernest Rovere, "a high card should first be played before taking a single finesse."

The quotation comes from his new 800-page book, "Modern Point Count Contract Bridge," an invaluable work of reference for the beginner and student.

Opening lead — ♡ K

Rovere cites the hand shown today as an example of taking a high card before finessing. (Incidentally, the hand is Figure 37 in a book that contains 233 of 'em!)

THREE ROUNDS

The defenders lead three rounds of hearts, and South ruffs the third. He plans to take a finesse in spades to try to capture the queen, but sees no need to begin with a finesse.

As a safety measure, he begins by leading out the ace of trumps.

The safety play pays off. West's singleton queen drops, and South does not need to lose a trump trick. If South had begun by finessing in spades he would have lost a trick to the queen.

NOT QUITE HOME

South is not quite home even after he captures the queen of spades. If he draws four rounds of trumps and then knocks out the ace of diamonds, he will have no protection against the remaining hearts.

Actually, South will come to no harm in this case even if he does draw trumps first, because the opponent who has the ace of diamonds has no hearts left.

Still, South does not know this and should guard against danger.

KNOCK OUT ACE

South can draw one more trump to make sure that West is not pulling some sort of deceptive coup with the queen of spades. Then South leads diamonds to knock out the ace, leaving one trump in the dummy.

Even if East could return a heart, declarer could ruff it in dummy with that trump.

Then South could get back to his hand with the king of clubs to draw the rest of the trumps. Dummy's last diamond furnishes a discard for South's last club.

QUESTION

As dealer, you hold:

♠ Q
♥ A K 10 9 2
♦ 7 4 3
♣ Q 10 9 2

What do you say?

Answer: Pass.

You would consider an opening bid if you had a small singleton in spades, with Q-x-x of diamonds, for then your queen would be a working card. A singleton queen is a doubtful value, and you therefore pass this borderline hand.

Committee Supports Unification

Formation of a Committee for Better Schools Through Unification, to back the June 2 ballot proposal to unify Tamalpais High School District, was announced today.

"We are supporting unification of the area that has been served by Tamalpais Union High School District for more than 55 years," said Mrs. Eugene E. Crawford of Mill Valley, chairman. "This plan, which would merge the high schools and 11 elementary school districts, was adopted by the Marin County Committee for School District Organization after more than two years of study . . .

"The members of our committee believe in educational smallness where smallness counts—in small class size and small school size . . . in bigness where bigness counts — in school district organization, so that administration can be centralized and more dollars can be made available for teaching."

Members of the executive committee are Mrs. Crawford, Dr. John C. Siemens and Mrs. Russell R. Klein of Kentfield, Robert E. Rogers of Sausalito, and Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. of Tiburon.

Mrs. Charles C. Worth of Kentfield heads the speakers' bureau, B. A. Sill of Corte Madera is treasurer, and Jack L. Mengel of Larkspur is finance chairman.

District chairmen are: Lagunitas, Mrs. Melville Dickson and Mrs. A. E. Larsen; Fairfax, Jay Hutchinson; San Anselmo, Mrs. J. T. Phelps and Mrs. John S. Williams; Kentfield, Mrs. M. W. Milot and Mrs. Roger Wurtz; Larkspur, Mrs Robert J. Gicker; Reed, Mrs .William J. Ferguson and Mill Valley, Mrs. John Thomson.

Pocket Tear Gas Testing Supports Mosk

Those pocket tear gas guns, of the type recently banned from sale by the state, got a scientific testing yesterday by the Marin County Sheriff's officers.

According to Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, the test proved that Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk did the right thing when he said the small weapons were not much good as a protection for women.

Mountanos supervised the firing of three types of the guns at the county pistol range. A brisk wind served to illustrate the point that the "cloud" of tear gas—supposedly intended to blind an attacker for a few moments, rendering him helpless—is actually a puff of smoke which disappears almost as fast as the gun is fired.

In banning the weapons, Mosk said they were ineffective and dangerous in that they would thus give the owner a false sense of security."

He also suggested they might have a "boomerang" effect if the wind blew the gas back in the shooter's own face. But Mountanos said he believes the guns are so harmless they could not even do damage this way.

Mosk's comments followed earlier tests by the state's Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation. Mountanos said yesterday's local demonstration indicated that "only if you shot one of the things point blank would it do anything.

"And then it would not be the gas. It would be the primer, which would do little more than sting the victim for a few seconds."

First District Candidates On Sounding Board

The three candidates for county supervisor from the first supervisorial district will be panelists on radio station KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

Guests for Kitty Oppenheimer, moderator, will be incumbent Byron W. Leydecker, San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis and Orlando Conti.

Questions for the panelists will be accepted from listeners during the broadcast, which will be repeated at 12:30 p.m., Sunday, on tape recording.

The two candidates for State Senate from the 13th Senatorial District, Sen. John F. McCarthy (R)- who is running for re-election, and his Democratic opponent, Mrs. Vera Schultz of Mill Valley, will appear on the program May 21.

Talk On Caribbean

A travelogue of colored slides of the Caribbean Islands will be given by Miss Clara-Belle Hamilton of Corte Madera at the monthly meeting of the Marin chapter of the American Assn. of Retired Persons after a potluck luncheon at 1 p.m., Saturday, at the First Methodist Church of San Rafael.

G. The amount which is to be contributed by the City of San Rafael as proposed by Resolution of Preliminary Determination No. 2970 passed by the City Council of the City of San Rafael on the 3rd day of February, 1964, and as proposed by this Resolution, consists of approximately $141,400.00. Said $141,400.00 shall be contributed from surplus revenues accumulated from the operation of parking facilities heretofore established in Parking District No. 1 in the City of San Rafael, and from parking meters.

H. It is further determined that all of the gross revenues of the off-street parking facilities heretofore established in Parking District No. 1 and of the additional off-street parking facilities hereinabove described and proposed to be constructed, and all of the gross revenues from parking meters now or hereafter installed and maintained on any and all public streets and ways within the district, shall be pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds of Parking District No. 1 now outstanding and additional bonds provided to be issued under this Resolution, all of which bonds shall be equally secured, as provided in Resolution No. 2065 adopted by the City Council of the City of San Rafael on March 17, 1958.

J. The City Council of the City of San Rafael hereby determines that parking meters shall be installed and maintained, or shall continue to be maintained, upon all of the public ways or streets within the boundaries of Parking District No. 1 so long as any of the additional bonds which may be issued pursuant to these proceedings are outstanding, which shall not be more than thirty-five (35) years from the date of said bonds. The City Council also determines that fees or charges will be collected for the use of the additional facilities herein proposed to be constructed in said Parking District No. 1, by means of parking meters or by other suitable means, in amounts sufficient, together with other revenues available therefor, to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest on said additional bonds and the bonds of said district now outstanding.

K. It is hereby estimated that the amount of the bonds proposed to be issued is the sum of $250,000.00; that the maximum number of years the bonds are to run shall not exceed thirty-five (35) years from the date of the bonds, and that the rate of interest upon the bonds shall not be in excess of six per cent (6%) per annum.

L. The limit as to the rate of ad valorem assessments which may be levied upon all taxable real property within the district is hereby set at 75c on each $100 of assessed valuation of all taxable real property in the district in any one year for all purposes permitted by the provisions of Charter Ordinances No. 644 and 655 and the provisions of the Parking District Law of 1951. Said limit as to the rate of ad valorem assessment shall continue throughout the period of the Series B bonds to be issued pursuant to this resolution and subsequent proceedings taken leading to their issuance.

M. The public ways within the district upon which the City of San Rafael has proposed by its Resolution of Preliminary Determination No. 1742 to install and maintain and contiune to maintain parking meters, the gross revenues from which will be allocated and pledged to the payment of principal and interest upon the bonds, consist of all of the public streets or ways within the boundaries of the district as shown upon the map of the district hereinabove referred to; said parking meters shall be maintained as long as any bonds or interest thereon issued in these proceedings shall remain unpaid.

N. Monday, the 15th day of June, 1964, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P.M. of said day, and the meeting place of the City Council of the City of San Rafael, in the City Hall, San Rafael, California, are hereby fixed as the time and place for a hearing upon the matters set forth in this resolution. Any person interested, and objecting to the construction of additional facilities in Parking District No. 1 at the locations hereinabove described, the issuance of bonds or any other proposal in this Resolution of Intention, may file a written protest with the City Clerk of the City of San Rafael at his office any time prior to said time fixed for the hearing. The City Clerk of the City of San Rafael is hereby directed to publish this Resolution of Intention twice in the INDEPENDENT-JOURNAL, a daily newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the City of San Rafael, the first publication of which shall be at least thirty (30) days prior to the date herein fixed for hearing. Reference is hereby made to the report of the City Engineer of the City of San Rafael, which said report was filed in the office of the City Clerk of the City of San Rafael on the 17th day of February, 1964. Said report was filed in accordance with the requirements of Resolution No. 2970 of the City Council of the City of San Rafael, passed on the 3rd day of February, 1964, and said report complies with the requirements of said resolution.

O. Preliminary determination is hereby made that the public convenience and necessity require the improvement described in the above Resolution of Intention.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Monday, the 15th day of June 1964, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P.M. of said day, at the meeting place of the City Council of the City of San Rafael, located in the City Hall, San Rafael, California, is hereby fixed as the time and place when and where any and all persons interested who have filed an objection or who object may appear and show cause why the City Council should not find and determine that the public convenience and necessity require the construction of additional facilities to be made in said Parking District No. 1, without compliance with the Special Assessment Investigation, Limitation and Majority Protest Act of 1931.

Wives Worried About Getting Pregnant Should See Doctor

VAN DELLEN

"I'm 27 and have been married two years," writes Mrs. N.S. "My husband and I would like to have a baby but whenever I think of getting pregnant, I go to pieces. Is there any way I can overcome this terrible fear?"

Any married woman with misgivings along this line ought to consult a physician for discussion of her problem.

THERE IS A difference between fear of pregnancy and not wanting children. If a woman is healthy and capable of getting pregnant, she may have childhood memories of an unhappy home, an overworked mother, or squabbling brothers and sisters. Her mother may have died in childbirth or a sister or sister-in-law may have delivered a spastic malformed, or stillborn baby. Apprehension also can stem from a family history of epilepsy or other conditions with hereditary associations.

Now and then panic is induced by an overly conscientious physician who tells the woman her uterus is small or displaced. He may indicate she is likely to miscarry or encounter an Rh problem. Friends may have warned her that bearing children spoils the figure, ties you down, saps your strength, or tears you to pieces. A woman who basically is immature swallows all this—hook, line, and sinker—and develops a phobia about pregnancy.

FEAR MAY BE used as an excuse for frigidity. Other women are frustrated about the entire affair and resort to such rationalizations as "I'm afraid to get pregnant because no one can love her baby if she resented her pregnancy."

Our reader should realize we live emotionally as well as physically. These bouts of fear and anxiety will continue to plague Mrs. S. until she has a healthy baby to cuddle. Otherwise her negative att

This Dog Just Eats Dough

NEW YORK (AP)—An organization has been formed to stop discrimination against dogs.

One of the things being done by the newly organized Dog Owners Assn. of America is to offer its members a $3,000 insurance policy to pay for damage done by their dogs in homes away from home.

This, says an association spokesman, is to help combat doggy discrimination by certain motel owners who refuse to allow canines on their premises. The motel people argue that often a dog is many miles away before any canine damage is discovered.

Girl Cleans Furniture In Her Own Way

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP)—After Cynthia Rayl, 9, found a penny in an upholstered chair she set off on a hunt through the living room furniture and found a kiddy-sized gold mine.

When she finished she had $5.08 in coins which over many years had slipped from adult pockets into crevices of the furniture.

Novato Unified School Election Drive Planned

A postcard campaign urging unification of the Novato Unified School District and San Jose School District will be conducted by the Community Problems Study Group of the Novato Branch of the American Assn. of University Women.

An analysis by Mrs. Dennis Dutra of AAUW on the Booz-Allen and Hamilton study of North Marin school districts at a session last week by the study group prompted the action.

"The boundary that splits Novato into two school districts must be eliminated," Mrs. Dutra said.

THE RETURN OF DOUGLAS DRAKE

. . . for years the image of this jaunty, owl-wise drake was the symbol of everything fine to be found in a food store. Douglas Drake stands for top quality, unstinted personal service, and prices that make budgeting so simplified.

DRAKE MARKET IS NOW UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT . . . and the new owners, Albert (Dutch) Mondot and Richard (Dick) Francour recall when Douglas Drake made Drake Market the "Friendliest Market on the Boulevard". "Dutch" started at Drake as a stock boy when Douglas was a duckling. Twelve years later they're joining with Dick, lately of General Mills, in making Drake a great place to shop. Art Wilson remains behind the meat counter and continues to make Drake Meat the best to eat.

They all look forward to seeing both old and new Drake customers. You'll enjoy shopping at Drake where your patronage is not only respected but sincerely appreciated.
